990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Section E, Line 2a Identify Supported Orgs and Explain How Activities Furthered Exempt Pu	The Doyle Trust qualifies as a Functionally Integrated Type III Supporting Organization under the interim authority set forth in IRS Notice 2014-4 regarding the governmental entity exception and Reg 118867-10 posted on the Federal Register on February 19, 2016, which classifies a supporting organization as functionally integrated if it engages in activities for or on behalf of the governmental supported organization that perform the functions of, or carry out the purposes, that governmental supported organization and that, but for the involvement of the supporting organization, would normally be engaged in by the governmental supported organization itself. Both of the Trusts beneficiaries, the Santa Rosa Junior College and the City of Santa Rosa, are governmental entities. The Trust provisions direct the distribution of up to $2,000 to the City of Santa Rosa to be applied toward the upkeep of Doyle Park, and the entire remaining balance of its income to the Santa Rosa Junior College District for the provision of scholarships to students. The funds provided by the Doyle Trust to the City of Santa Rosa are used to maintain Doyle Park, an essential governmental function. The Doyle Scholarships are well-known within the community and have allowed three generations of families to attend the communitys highly rated and highly regarded junior college. The Trustees of the Trust work closely with the District to define and address the Districts needs. In addition to the distribution of funds, the Trust performs important functions on behalf of the Santa Rosa Junior College District that would otherwise be performed by the District, including the implementation, maintenance and operation of the highly specialized and time-consuming Doyle Trustee Awards Program, by which the Trust is solely responsible for the review, selection and award of scholarships to worthy students whose challenges and struggles most likely impeded their academic success in high school and who would not otherwise qualify for merit based scholarships. The Doyle Trustee Awards Program was designed and implemented by the Trustees at the request of the District and addresses a very important need within the community and the District. In doing so, the Trustees sit on and regularly participate in the Districts Scholarship Committee. The Trust also routinely presents the annual Doyle Scholarship Awards on behalf of the Santa Rosa Junior College District at the many high school awards ceremonies within the District. The Trust's activities would have to be carried out by the respective governmental entity but for the involvement of the Doyle Trust.
