If "Yes," describe in Part VI when and how the organization made the determination.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |     |    |
| c Did the organization ensure that all support to such organizations was used exclusively for section 170(c)(2)(B) purposes? If "Yes," explain in Part VI what controls the organization put in place to ensure such use.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |     |    |
| 4a Was any supported organization not organized in the United States ("foreign supported organization")? If "Yes," and if you checked 12a or 12b in Part I, answer (b) and (c) below.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |     |    |
| b Did the organization have ultimate control and discretion in deciding whether to make grants to the foreign supported organization? If "Yes," describe in Part VI how the organization had such control and discretion despite being controlled or supervised by or in connection with its supported organizations.                                                                                                                                                                                                         |     |    |
| c Did the organization support any foreign supported organization that does not have an IRS determination under sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a)(1) or (2)? If "Yes," explain in Part VI what controls the organization used to ensure that all support to the foreign supported organization was used exclusively for section 170(c)(2)(B) purposes.                                                                                                                                                                            |     |    |
| 5a Did the organization add, substitute, or remove any supported organizations during the tax year? If "Yes," answer (b) and (c) below (if applicable). Also, provide detail in Part VI , including (i) the names and EIN numbers of the supported organizations added, substituted, or removed, (ii) the reasons for each such action, (iii) the authority under the organization's organizing document authorizing such action, and (iv) how the action was accomplished (such as by amendment to the organizing document). |     |    |
| b Type I or Type II only. Was any added or substituted supported organization part of a class already designated in the organization's organizing document?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |     |    |
| c Substitutions only. Was the substitution the result of an event beyond the organization's control?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |     |    |
| 6 Did the organization provide support (whether in the form of grants or the provision of services or facilities) to anyone other than (i) its supported organizations, (ii) individuals that are part of the charitable class benefited by one or more of its supported organizations, or (iii) other supporting organizations that also support or benefit one or more of the filing organization's supported organizations? If "Yes," provide detail in Part VI .                                                          |     |    |
| 7 Did the organization provide a grant, loan, compensation, or other similar payment to a substantial contributor (as defined in section 4958(c)(3)(C)), a family member of a substantial contributor, or a 35% controlled entity with regard to a substantial contributor? If "Yes," complete Part I of Schedule L (Form 990 or 990-EZ).                                                                                                                                                                                            |     |    |
| 8 Did the organization make a loan to a disqualified person (as defined in section 4958) not described in line 7? If "Yes," complete Part I of Schedule L (Form 990 or 990-EZ).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |     |    |
| 9a Was the organization controlled directly or indirectly at any time during the tax year by one or more disqualified persons as defined in section 4946 (other than foundation managers and organizations described in section 509(a)(1) or (2))? If "Yes," provide detail in Part VI .                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |     |    |
| b Did one or more disqualified persons (as defined in line 9a) hold a controlling interest in any entity in which the supporting organization had an interest? If "Yes," provide detail in Part VI .                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |     |    |
| c Did a disqualified person (as defined in line 9a) have an ownership interest in, or derive any personal benefit from, assets in which the supporting organization also had an interest? If "Yes," provide detail in Part VI .                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |     |    |
| 10a Was the organization subject to the excess business holdings rules of section 4943 because of section 4943(f) (regarding certain Type II supporting organizations, and all Type III non-functionally integrated supporting organizations)? If "Yes," answer 10b below.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |     |    |
| b Did the organization have any excess business holdings in the tax year? (Use Schedule C, Form 4720, to determine whether the organization had excess business holdings.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |     |    |

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

- 1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

|   | Yes | No |
|---|-----|----|

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

- 1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
- 2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
- 3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

|   | Yes | No |

Section E. Type III Functionally-Integrated Supporting Organizations

- 1 Check the box next to the method that the organization used to satisfy the Integral Part Test during the year (see instructions).
- a ☐ The organization satisfied the Activities Test. Complete line 2 below.
- b ☐ The organization is the parent of each of its supported organizations. Complete line 3 below.
- c ☐ The organization supported a governmental entity. Describe in Part VI how you supported a government entity (see instructions).

2 Activities Test Answer (a) and (b) below.

- a Did substantially all of the organization's activities during the tax year directly further the exempt purposes of the supported organization(s) to which the organization was responsive? If "Yes," then in Part VI identify those supported organizations and explain how these activities directly furthered their exempt purposes, how the organization was responsive to those supported organizations, and how the organization determined that these activities constituted substantially all of its activities.

- b Did the activities described in (a) constitute activities that, but for the organization's involvement, one or more of the organization's supported organization(s) would have been engaged in? If "Yes," explain in Part VI the reasons for the organization's position that its supported organization(s) would have engaged in these activities but for the organization's involvement.

3 Parent of Supported Organizations Answer (a) and (b) below.

- a Did the organization have the power to regularly appoint or elect a majority of the officers, directors, or trustees of each of the supported organizations? Provide details in Part VI.
- b Did the organization exercise a substantial degree of direction over the policies, programs, and activities of each of its supported organizations? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role played by the organization in this regard.

The collection of artwork is focused on depicting marine life via photography, acrylic and oil paintings, and other visual media. It is designed to inspire our visitors and staff to continue to support the Pacific Whale Foundation's mission.

Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the Organization may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for years 2018 and 2017.

The Organization's Forms 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, for the years ending 2015, 2016, and 2017, are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed.

The 2018 Form 990 was amended to reflect the current year program service accomplishments and the Organization's expanded mission statement.

Form 990 - Organization's Mission

Pacific Whale Foundation's mission is to protect the ocean through science and advocacy, and to inspire environmental stewardship. Our vision is to be the people's environmental organization for the protection of the world's whales, dolphins and other marine animals living wild in their natural habitat. We believe that it is essential to involve the public in our mission. We encourage you to become a part of our global community of people who care about the future of our oceans and marine wildlife.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment

Our Research program uses a two-pronged approach of long-term and short-term projects to contribute to the scientific understanding of marine life and marine ecosystems. Shared through peer reviewed scientific journals, reports and worldwide meetings of the scientific community and resource-management agencies, our studies have looked at the impacts of human pressures, such as marine debris and vessel traffic and tourism on humpback whales in the North and South Pacific and dolphins within the Maui Nui region. Our efforts are focused primarily in Hawaii, Australia and Ecuador, with additional collaborations throughout the Pacific.

In 2018, our research team collaborated with 14 global research programs, presented at conferences in Peru, Slovenia and the U.S. and published 5 peer-reviewed journal articles: 1. Nearshore sea surface macro marine debris in Maui County, Hawaii: Distribution, drivers, and polymer composition 2. Variation in Dorsal Fin Morphology in Common Bottlenose Dolphin Tursiops truncatus (Cetacea: Delphinidae) Populations from the Southeast Pacific Ocean 3. Conservation and Education Through Ecotourism: Using Citizen Science to Monitor Cetaceans in the Four-Island Region of Maui, Hawai'i 4. Utilizing occupancy models and platforms-of-opportunity to assess area use of mother-calf humpback whales 5. Stranding of Small Cetaceans with Missing Fins Raises Concerns on Cetacean Conservation in Ecuador: Bycatch or Targeted Fisheries?

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Second Accomplishment

Understanding that it is essential to develop a generation of leaders who know and care for the marine environment, our Education program creates and provides science-based opportunities that engage the public in conservation and advocacy. Through our Keiki Whalewatch program, Ocean Camp, Tide Pool Explorations, Plastic Pollution Solutions, hands-on marine exploratory science labs, internships, public Information Stations, community events and more, millions of individuals from all walks of life have accessed quality opportunities to learn about protecting the ocean through science and advocacy. In 2018, we served 3,235 participants in standards-based Keiki (kid) Whalewatch programs through 33 school partnerships; 1,012 Ocean Campers with hands-on, "leave to learn" science programming; and 1,837 middle and high school students at 15 schools in Plastic Pollution Solutions.

Kids Whalewatch Program: Our customized ecotours through our keiki whalewatch program offers a free and highly subsidized opportunity for schoolchildren in Maui County to learn about whales living wild in their natural habitat. We also offer an optional classroom program with standards-based, grade-level appropriate, hands-on activities for students. The program is open to school groups from pre-K to high school. For many participants, this is their first time seeing humpback whales from a boat and will solidify a life-long love of and desire to protect these animals. In 2018, we reached 3,235 students through this program, and, for the first time ever, expanded to schools on the islands of Molokai and Lanai.

Ocean Camp: Ocean Camp features hands-on science activities and daily field trips for children in grades 1-5, led by scientists and educators. With the goal of introducing young people to the marine environment through engaging activities and field experiences that inspire them to care about and protect the ocean, campers learn about Maui's natural environment while building new skills and making new friends. Each week centers around an ocean-related theme, and each day includes a nature-based field trip. 2018 sites included the Atlantis Submarine; Hawaiian Islands Humpback Whale National Marine Sanctuary Visitor Center & Fishpond; Kapalua Coastal Trail; La Perouse Bay; Maui Canoe Club; Maui Ocean Center; Waikamoi Preserve Hike and more. 2018 enjoyed participation by 1,012 campers, 22 of which whom received financial assistance through our Keiki scholarship program.

Plastic Pollution Solutions: Launched in the Fall of 2018 through the assistance of the County of Maui Environmental Protection & Sustainability Division, our Plastic Pollution Solutions program offers classroom collaborations to exchange educator learning techniques, expertise and resources that further develop Maui Nui intermediate and high school students into future stewards of our planet's oceans. The program includes a screening of the 22-minute film, A Plastic Ocean, as well as curriculum and activities appropriate for varying subject areas to familiarize youth with a real-world environmental problem and to introduce them to real-world solutions. In 2018, 1,837 students in 15 schools through 47 individual sessions benefited from this free program.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c - Third Accomplishment

Our Conservation program collaborates with local and international organizations to address environmental threats in ways that can be inclusive of and accessible to the community. Aligned with our research and education priorities, efforts promote a solution-based approach to critical issues, such as endangered-species awareness, collecting and monitoring marine debris, keeping our oceans clean and safe, reducing our carbon footprint and more. Recent initiatives include: The Last Straw; Be Whale Aware & Dolphin Wise; Volunteers on Vacation; and the Coastal Marine Debris Monitoring Program.

Last Straw Campaign: Straws are one of the most common marine debris items in the world, and along with other single-use plastics, are polluting our oceans. 500 million straws a day are used in the United States alone, enough straws to wrap around the earth 2.5 times every day. Straws are hard to recycle and transport to landfills because of their size and weight, they often end up in our oceans. Since 2015, we have kept 500,000 straws out of our local landfills, partnered with 25 restaurants to stop using plastic straws and partnered with over 4,000 individuals to start using reusable straws.

Coastal Marine Debris Monitoring Program: A supplement to our systematic surveys, the Coastal Marine Debris Monitoring Program allows members of the public to become citizen scientists by cleaning up a beach of their choice and recording data on what objects they find. Through this program, we are not only able to engage with the community, but to also gain a better understanding of where exactly debris is coming from in order to help identify solutions for the plastic pollution problem. In 2018, we partnered with over 200 citizen scientists to clean 180 beaches and removed 25,843 pieces of debris. More than 83% of trash collected was plastic, with the top three items collected being cigarette butts, plastic pieces and bottle caps. In 2018, PWF published the first study to determine trends of large marine debris items floating within Maui County waters. A total of 260 survey days were completed between 2013 to 2017, collecting 2,095 items of debris from the ocean, of which 90% were plastic. This data is used to help develop mitigation measures and to teach others to "RETHINK" single-use plastics in their daily lives.
