Associates are required to provide supporting documentation. The applications are recorded and restored. The Share Fund Staff, comprised of 2 administrators and 1 program manager, review these applications weekly. The Share Fund Administrators make initial application decisions which are reviewed by the Program Manager to ensure fund governance during decision making. The Share Fund staff ensures it follows all Federal guidelines. It denies grants to associates for the following reasons: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. If grant would replace or supplement staples' compensation or benefits to its associates, including covering any deductibles from staples' plans or lost wages due to reduction in hours. 2. If there is no qualifying event, such as natural disaster, catastrophic personal incident, serious illness or accident, funeral expense or military deployment, that has occurred to the applicant or an immediate family member. 3. If applicant has applied 4 or more times within the fiscal year or received $4,000 in grants, whichever comes first. 4. If applicant has already received $2,500 in grants for same qualifying event. 5. If applicant is unable to provide sufficient supporting documentation. Once decision is made, the applicant is made aware of the status of their application. The Share Fund staff use Staples Share Fund guidelines and a Staples Share Fund grant award list of frequent or commonly requested categories so that award amount decisions remain consistent. If denied, the applicant is provided with the above reason as to why, if approved the applicant is made aware that this grant is in no way a benefit and should not be used to replace or supplement Staples' compensation or benefits to its associates, including covering any deductibles from staples' plans or lost wages due to a reduction in hours.
