Community Engagement - To inspire and motivate individuals to join the movement to strengthen the community by improving economic opportunities and outcomes for Colorado women and their families, WFCO gathers and shares information in several ways. WFCO invests in research to inform our programmatic and policy work. Issues, opportunities, and potential solutions identified through research are shared with partners, policy makers, and community members through direct outreach, various media, and educational events across the state. This year research topics included the Self-Sufficiency Standard and others related to women's economic security. WFCO's connected with thousands of community members in events such as Annual Luncheons in Denver and Colorado Springs, through the Dottie Lamm Leadership award which recognizes a young woman forging her path to economic security, and community education events throughout the state to share more about our work.

Name: The Women's Foundation of Colorado Inc

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

See Schedule OCommunity Investments and Grants - The Women's Foundation of Colorado (WFCO) improves economic outcomes for women and their families throughout Colorado by investing in organizations that help women earn livable wages and advance toward economic security With grants made through the WFCO endowment and several donor-advised funds, WFCO invested in direct-services that provide job training programs, support for securing and maintaining employment, and holistic services to meet the needs of women and their families

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

See Schedule OPublic Policy Support - WFCO advocates for public policies that improve opportunities for Colorado women and families to achieve economic security by addressing root causes of poverty and advancing education and job training, access to work supports such as child care, and pay equity. In pursuit of these public policy priorities, WFCO awards grants to public policy organizations with aligned goals of supporting progress for women and girls on the path to economic security. WFCO also educates community members about our public policy priorities and how to engage in advocacy.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

See Schedule ODonor-driven Grantmaking and Philanthropy - WFCO holds a number of giving vehicles that assist individuals and groups of individuals in their philanthropic goals to promote philanthropy by and for women. These funds include donor-advised funds, field of interest funds, group-advised funds, and giving circles. WFCO staff conducts due diligence on each grantmaking recommendation made by fund holders which is monitored by the board. On occasion, fund advisors co-invest in WFCO's community investments and grant and public policy support.

Part I, Line 2	The Foundation requests an application and final report for each project funded. In addition, the Foundation might perform a site visit, makes periodic calls and engages in email correspondence regarding updates to ensure grant funds are used properly. By requiring rigorous reporting and making a personal connection with each grantee, the Foundation ensures funds are being used for proper purposes. The Foundation uses a modified version of the Colorado Common Grant Application and Report that closely aligns with our strategic funding areas and allows The Foundation to gather specific and timely information on programs and organizations.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The Women's Foundation of Colorado distributes its Conflict of Interest Policy to all employees and Board members. Each Board member and employee is also provided a Conflict of Interest Statement, which affords the individual an opportunity to disclose any relationships, positions or circumstances which could potentially constitute a conflict of interest as defined in the Foundation's Conflict of Interest Policy. For each employee a signed form is obtained, and retained in the employee's personnel file. For each Board member a signed form is retained in a file located at The Women's Foundation of Colorado office along with other Board of Trustee information. It is the responsibility of the Vice President of Finance and Administration to verify that all employees and Board members have a signed Conflict of Interest Statement on file. Whenever a potential conflict exists, the Board of Trustees determines the appropriate response.
