Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Many schools in East Africa lack clean water and adequate sanitation systems. A lack of clean water and sanitation leads to decreases in school attendance, higher dropout rates, and an increase in physical, social, and psychological illnesses. Global Partners responds to communities with water needs through WASH (water, sanitation, and hygiene) projects that provide clean water infrastructure, assistance in water management and sustainability, sanitation facility improvement, and hygiene education. Global Partners WASH projects have been shown to reduce rates of diarrhea and parasitic and respiratory infection and enable students to spend significantly more time on homework.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Global Partners believes community leadership is the key to responsible and sustainable development and that local people have the right to drive change in their schools and communities. Education is exceedingly important in the fight against poverty, and, accordingly, our Community-Driven Education (CDE) Program -Mobilizes low performing primary schools and their communities-Places resources and decision-making power in the hands of local people through community meetings facilitated by Global Partners staff -Builds relationships between schools and local people-Betters communities' perceptions of the importance of education-Encourages teachers to integrate into communities-Funds projects that impact attendance and other education and health outcomes that are identified, implemented, and planned by communities.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Global Partners Girls Education Program empowers girls and young women who otherwise would be financially unable to continue their education to attend school, inspiring them to lead productive lives and protecting them from forced early marriage. Educating a girl has a resounding impact on household health and economic wellbeing that increases exponentially. Research shows that when girls go to secondary school, they are more likely to have higher household income, fewer children, healthier children, and more educated children. Global Partners began focusing on girls education 20 years ago, and we remain deeply committed to improving the quality of life and education for girls in East Africa today. Currently, we support girls education through the funding of individual secondary school and tertiary level scholarships in Uganda and Tanzania.

Part X FIN48 Footnote	Income tax benefits are recognized for income tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, only when it is determined that the income tax position will more-likely-than-not be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. GPFD has analyzed tax positions taken for filing with the Internal Revenue Service and the State of California. GPFD believes that income tax filing positions would be sustained upon examination and does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material adverse effect on GPFD.
