Grant was provided to the J Powless Tennis Center, LLC to make reparations necessary to restore facility that was 100 percent damaged by massive flooding. The decision making body, the Board of Directors, excluding any and all interested person(s) or parties, analyzed this transaction prior to finalizing the grant and determined that the grant categorically carries out the Organization mission. Without this grant, the facility would have faced permanent closure depriving its community with much-needed and relied upon recreational, supplemental out-of-school-time educational, life skills, and important remedial services for stroke victims. Such purposful funding is clearly delineated as a "giving priority" on the Foundation webpage. A significant part of this grant agreement requires the grantee to provide full scholarships (tuition, equipment, plus room & board) to overnight summer camps. These scholarships have a real value of more than $65,000 - all directed to a deserving at-risk populace who otherwise would not be able to afford such opportunities. Moreover, the scholarships will be in the name of PTR Foundation founder, the late Dennis Van der Meer. The Foundation is satisfied that the benefit(s) to the grantee is clearly in support of the goals and objectives of the grantor and the benefit to advancing its mission exceeds the dollars invested.
