Explanation: The organization's board of directors experienced changes in recent months. Additionally, the organization determined it was necessary to change its paid tax preparer. Once the organization realized that the Form 990 had not been timely filed, it engaged an accounting firm, with extensive experience in preparing returns for tax-exempt organizations, to help prepare its Form 990. The organization exercised ordinary business care and prudence and was nevertheless unable to file the return within the prescribed time. The organization respectfully requests abatement from late filing penalties due to the reasonable causes explained above.
