Return Reference	Explanation
FORM 990, PART VI, LINES 15A & 15B	Curry College maintains a compensation policy which covers all employees. When determining initial salaries, the following are considered: level of essential functions and responsibilities, required education, skills and relevant experience, both internal and external equity and budgeted amount. In reviewing salaries of existing employees, additional considerations include a substantial and permanent change in job duties, the change involves increase levels of responsibilities in terms of decision-making and problem solving, job complexity and/or additional knowledge and skills required. Changes to a position can occur as the result of organizational changes, both internal and external equity and availability of budgeted funds. The Office of Human Resources regularly reviews the external market to ensure the College is compensating positions competitively. Market data comes from a variety of generally accepted benchmarking sources. In addition, research is conducted on hiring ranges for appropriate matches at local and other higher education institutions. Different aspects of data are collected depending on the position being reviewed in order to ensure an appropriate compensation comparison. The compensation of the President is reviewed and approved by the Board of Trustees and there is contemporaneous documentation of the deliberation and decision.
