Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Leadership Training and Developing the Potential of Women Throughout the year, the League provided various opportunities for members to gain leadership skills. The year began with a Leadership Retreat for the new Board of Directors, chairs, and co-chairs providing training on League procedures, Roberts Rules of Order, agendas and minutes, communication skills, and the creation of annual plans. We had our mid-year retreat with all of our members to discuss our community focus issue and held a training on overcoming self-doubt. Furthermore, each member gained experiential leadership training through their League placement on a Council where they are tasked with an operating function or program of the League. Members learn how to run an effective meeting and how to take an idea and make it a reality. We also sent various members to trainings held by the Association of Junior Leagues International to refine their leadership skills. Members that

Promoting Voluntarism in Our Community with Volunteer Expo. The League organized a community Expo highlighting area nonprofits. Nonprofits were invited to attend and the League provided them with booth space to set up information about their organization's mission and volunteer needs. The event was promoted throughout Buncombe County inviting community members to attend the free Expo to learn more about the nonprofits serving Western North Carolina. Attendees had a chance to gather information and talk to representatives of each nonprofit. We also held four community panels addressing various topics on how to serve your community. They included government service, direct

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt X, Line 2	The organization is exempt from federal income taxes under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Under the Code, however, income from certain activities not related to the organization's tax-exempt purpose may be subject to taxation as unrelated business income. JLA had no income from unrelated business activities in 2018-19 and was, therefore, not required to file Federal Form 990-T (Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return). The organization believes that it has appropriate support for all tax positions taken, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements.
