Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	Mini Grant for Teachers: Teachers are requested to complete an application explaining what the grant will be used for and how it will benefit the children, teachers and/or school. These are collected by the Mini Grant Director and brought to the Board for their approval. The mini grants are funded once it is verified that the funds have been spent as per approved application. Scholarships: The graduating seniors of Pilot Point ISD are invited to apply for these scholarships. Once applications are received they are graded by a panel of individuals not associated with Pilot Point ISD or Pilot Point Educational Foundation. The awarded students are informed in writing. To receive the scholarship the student must enroll in the school of their choice and furnish written proof of enrollment. The treasurer of the Pilot Point Educational foundation then mails the scholarship check to the school.
