Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Trade Missions Each year the Trade Center organizes a gubernatorial trade mission, as well as smaller trade missions. The trade missions provide one-on-one meetings with potential foreign trade partners and unique networking opportunities. Trade missions are particularly useful for first time exporters or companies having difficulty expanding into a particular country or market. The Trade Center arranges all details of the missions including transportation, translators, and business meetings.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Technical Assistance & Trade Counseling The Trade Center assists its members in researching new markets, reviewing trade regulations, tariffs and logistics, and in product sourcing. The Trade Center's staff is committed to providing quality information and practical advice in selecting markets for our members' products and services. There are a number of resources we have available to the public in our Portland Trade Library, and on our website where trade news and current export data is listed. We have extensive internet research capabilities and on-line database services along with internet reference guides that provide our members with timely information on foreign markets.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Trade Shows and International Conferences The Trade Center offers group trips and discounts on overseas trade show space through its alliance with other government agencies. This is a convenient way for members to participate in overseas shows and display products internationally. The Maine International Trade Center also hosts international conferences and incoming delegations from overseas. Trade Center members enjoy opportunities to network with foreign buyers, commercial representatives and visiting dignitaries.

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	The process used for the disbursement of grant funds to foreign based organizations requires that a Request for Proposal (RFP) is written by Maine International Trade center (MITC) and candidates are sought to submit their proposals based on the specifications of work proposed in the RFP. The candidates must outline in detail how they will meet the reporting guidelines and objectives and submit their quote of services for review. A committee is formed by MITC that reviews the applications and narrows down the candidate's for final vetting and approval to enter into a contract. The foreign based consulting company that is selected then signs a contract agreement for services with MITC and is required to submit monthly performance reports and invoices during the pre-determined execution period for the grant funding. On a monthly basis the reports are reviewed by the Director in charge of the overseas activity and once the report is accepted they would then authorize financing to make payment by wiring funds to the foreign based organization. All supporting documentation is kept by the finance department as backup. On a quarterly basis MITC submits to the grant issuing organization a request for reimbursement based on the fully executed grants that were paid in that quarter.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	The process used for the disbursement of grant funds to US Based organizations require that the business complete and submit the appropriate Grant Applications to Maine International Trade Center (MITC) for review using standardized forms. The applications are reviewed by the MITC staff member who is responsible for management of the Grant Funds, currently that is the Vice President of the Trade Center. Once an application is approved, the business is then authorized to attend the Trade Mission/Trade Show or Training with the understanding that upon return they will be required to complete a post event survey and submit receipts as supporting backup for the amount of reimbursement they are requesting. The grant receipts are then reviewed by Finance and kept for supporting backup. On a quarterly basis MITC submits to the Grant issuing organization (SBA, etc) a request for reimbursement based on the fully executed Grants that were used in that quarter. Once funding is received by the grant issuing organization the authorization is then given by the President to reimburse the company for their expenses.
