Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Career Closet - The Career Closet for women & men is the first step in empowering economically disadvantaged individuals toward economic self-sufficiency. This simple, but important step helps our clients realize their potential in order to reach their professional goals. Clients are served individually, at one hour appointments, where they are treated with dignity and respect. Although the most immediate impact is providing clients with free business clothing in a supportive atmosphere, the underlying effect is increased self-esteem and self-confidence that is a byproduct of improving their personal appearance. This increased self-confidence empowers them to believe in their ability to succeed in their job search. In essence, TFS not only distributes business clothing but helps clients with that essential accessory that goes with every outfit - self-confidence. This self-confidence comes from not only securing but retaining employment which strengthens their families and the communities in which they live.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Professional development workshops Tailored for Success believes it is critical to provide ongoing support to our clients in order for them to achieve economic self-sufficiency We understand that in order for individuals who are unemployed or underemployed to successfully transition into the workforce, they need more than professional business attire Our professional development workshops emphasize employment retention and networking through the use of volunteers who are able to provide real world perspectives on what it takes to be successful in the workplace We currently provide four to six free workshops per fiscal year focusing on three core topics soft skills, financial literacy, and job search skills The Boots2suits program is geared to women veterans who are having difficulty making the transition from military to civilian employment Women veterans are given career and skill assessments to develop an individual employment plan Then, female veterans are given 1 1 job search guidance featuring customized resume development and interview preparation, workshops on topics that explore the issues surrounding transitioning from the military to civilian workforce will be conducted Participants in the Boots2suits program also have unlimited access to our women's career closet for a personalized image consultation including clothing Lastly, building upon our established collaborations with the Massachusetts Veterans Affairs office, The Women's Veterans Network, career place-veteran representatives and military friendly employers we have formed a military leadership council to help us ensure the program is relevant and impactful for women veterans

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Women's Empowerment Breakfast The goal of the Women's Empowerment Breakfast was to give participants a chance to network and explore a particular aspect of career development. The topic of this breakfast was the development of self-confidence and career transition. Our Executive Director moderated a panel discussion with four business women who have all overcome challenges and career transitions. The panelists focused on providing insight as to where and how they gained the self-confidence to achieve career success, as well as imparted words and/or quotes of encouragement to the audience.
