Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Residential Continuum of Care: We help hundreds of New York adults with special needs live with dignity in safe, comfortable, accessible housing. Hands-on support ranges from two-to-24 hours. It includes rehabilitation, nursing, life-skills training, career training, behavioral support and direct supervision by staff. Each Residential Living program at Ability Beyond has different goals and is geared towards the individual's needs and goals to foster independence and a good quality of life.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Independent Living Supports: Everyone deserves a say in how they live, work and participate in their communities. We help people with disabilities have that say, by learning about their personal goals and setting a path to reach them. Our supports range from educational to recreational, life-skills instruction, transportation, and medical care to addiction recovery services and more. A secure and welcoming home does more than meet a basic physical need for shelter. It goes beyond-serving as an anchor in a challenging world, providing protection, comfort and support. Our independent living programs provide dignity, self-respect and the foundation for economic and social success. Ability Beyond measures the success of our independent living programs based on the number of individuals who maintain their housing year after year, the number of individuals who avail themselves of social entitlements, the number of individuals who benefit from residential programming (including lifeskills instruction) to find competitive employment, and the number of individuals who participate actively in their communities. We track this data day-to-day, with annual reporting requirements to state agencies that fund our homes. We also deliver client satisfaction surveys annually to determine the impact of our work quality of life and personal fulfillment. Since moving to our Chappaqua location in late 2015, we have more than doubled the number of people served in New York day and employment programs! Meaningful work, social interactions of the workplace and earning a paycheck are the essentials to independence and self-worth. Ability Beyond's over 60-year track record of success in job training and placement has helped thousands of people to gain meaningful employment in their communities. Through our Employment Programs, we help individuals by training them for fulfilling work opportunities, providing job placement assistance, and helping them maintain their jobs for the long term. Our dedicated and experienced staff design individualized strategies to help meet personal employment goals. We provide group supported employment, career development services, work readiness/youth employment services, supported employment, customized employment, assessment services and job shadowing.
