Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule C, Part II-B, Line 1	The University, through the Association of Governing Boards, contacts the Board of Trustees periodically to urge them to contact their legislators regarding funding support issues such as New York State (NYS) Bundy Aid and the NYS Tuition Assistance Program. Alumni are also periodically encouraged to contact their state and federal representatives. The President, Chief Financial Officer and the External Relations Office sign official communications including lobbying appeals. The office is principally responsible for monitoring government action at the local, state and federal levels, reporting significant actions which impact the University to appropriate offices, and where appropriate, to lobbying legislative and executive bodies. The vast majority of lobbying communications and direct contact with legislators or legislative staff members emanates from this office. The University conveyed its position on various state and federal issues, as well as miscellaneous economic development, energy and environmental issues.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	The University provides funding to faculty and students for scholarships, research and other projects. Expenses must be substantiated under the Accountability Plan to ensure proper use of funds. Students must meet the requirements specified in the respective award program in order to receive the award. The requirements include criteria such as financial need, obtaining/maintaining the required grade point average and studying in a certain economic discipline, etc. If the scholarship is ongoing, the student must continue to meet the scholarship requirements in order to be awarded a scholarship in subsequent years. Financial need, grade point averages and other scholarship criteria are continually monitored to determine whether the student meets the criteria.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Travel for companions and gross up payments were provided to an officer of the University. These benefits were provided as taxable compensation. The non-taxable benefit is included in Part II, Column D. A personal residence was provided to the President as a mandatory condition of employment and was not taxable based on section 119 of IRC.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	Severance The Former VP of Development and Alumni Relations received a severance payment in the amount of $162,346 from the University. This amount is included in the total reported on Part II, Column B(iii). Retirement Plan The President participates in a non-qualified deferred compensation retirement plan. The plan was created during 2010 with the approval of the Executive Committee, an independent and disinterested party, in order to align the Presidents total compensation with comparable universities and to ensure the Presidents long-term employment with Clarkson University. The current year distribution from the plan was $150,000, plus accrued interest, for a total of $150,150. This distribution is included in the total reported on Part II, Column B(iii).

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 7	Performance Awards The Executive Committee may, at its discretion, award the President a performance award each year in connection with an evaluation of his performance. The evaluation is based on his accomplishments against goals and objectives during the year. The President may, at his discretion, award employees with a performance award. The Interim Vice President for Development & Alumni Relations was given this award based on an evaluation of his performance. The evaluation is based upon their accomplishments against goals and objectives during the year. Retirement Incentive Program The Chief Research Officer received payments during 2018 pursuant to a retirement incentive program. This was a one-time program initiated in June 2018 to encourage a large scale retirement of faculty and staff. Employees were offered a fixed percentage of their salary in a lump sum payment if they committed to retiring within a certain period of time. The compensation received by the Chief Research Officer under this program is included in Part II, column B(ii).

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 1	Clarkson University is an independent, nationally recognized technological university whose faculty of teacher-scholars aspires to offer superior instruction and engage in high-quality research and scholarship in engineering, business, science, health, and liberal arts. Our primary mission is to educate talented and motivated men and women to become successful professionals through quality pre-collegiate, undergraduate, graduate and professional continuing educational programs, with particular emphasis on the undergraduate experience. Our community and campus settings enhance the quality of student life and afford students access to, and interaction with, their faculty. We value the diversity of our University community, and we strive to attune ourselves and our programs to our global, pluralistic society. We share the belief that humane economic and social development derive from the expansion, diffusion and application of knowledge.
