Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Awards and assistance to individuals are governed by criteria established for each individual fund. All awards and assistance provided must meet the fund restriction requirements specified by the donor. Each fund has either an application and review process, or a committee which decides whether to approve or deny award requests. The awards are then submitted by the Foundation Director to Central Peninsula Hospital for payment. The Foundation provides reimbursement payments to the Hospital which are approved and signed by either the Board president or secretary/treasurer.
