Part III: Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

What is the Organization's primary exempt purpose?

To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, community and place of worship; to raise the standards of family life, to secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth; to bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the education of children and youth; to develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure all children and youth the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

Part V Other Information

All revenue reported on Form 990-EZ, Part 1, lines 1 through 8, is not considered unrelated business income. The funds were received and expended while carrying out the PTA's sole exempt purpose of promoting the welfare and education of children and youth in home, school, community and place of worship. See Part III (above) for complete definition of the PTA's primary exempt purpose.
