Return Reference	Explanation
Pt VI, Line 7a	In accordance with the bylaws, the Wyncote Audubon Society Board appoints a Nominating Committee that puts out a call to the membership to request nominations for the Board and Officer posts on, or before March of each year. The Nominating Committee announces a tentative slate of nominees at the April meeting and repeats the invitation for additional nominations. The final slate is announced at the May meeting where elections take place. The opportunity for additional nominations from the floor is offered and then nominations are closed and election takes place via a voice vote. Provisions for a written ballot would be available if/when there is more than one candidate for a position. All of these actions take place at the monthly general membership meetings.
