Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

We believe our services are best served in an environment that promotes laughter and joy, a place where life is celebrated and energies are not focused on barriers or what seems to be impossible. We intend to focus the full force of our energy on seeing beyond disability and imagining all that is possible. We believe that people with disabilities need to do for themselves as much as possible. We can provide teaching, options, support and the necessary skills and tools, but only they can combine all of these resources and bring their own dreams to life. Home & Community Based Services (HCBS) Individuals served within our HCBS program have primary diagnosis of intellectual disability, brain injury, or chronic mental illness. We provide SCL (daily and hourly) and respite services to both children and adults.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Intermediate Care Facility for People with Intellectual Disabilities (ICF/ID) Individuals served within our ICF/ID program all have a primary diagnosis of intellectual disabilities, and may require a high level of support. Beyond that, individuals have a variety of secondary diagnoses including autism, cerebral palsy, communication deficit, behavioral disorders, as well as a wide variety of medical diagnoses.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Outreach ServicesOur Outreach Services program helps to fill many of the gaps faced by people with disabilities. Through the generous support of United Way of Mahaska County, Imagine the Possibilities is able to meet many of those needs, such as camperships and special trips, Special Olympics, Challenger Little League Team and other special gifts and grants.

Residential Care Facility for Persons with Mental Illness (RCF/PMI)The RCF/PMI program offers an assortment of services both in-house and through local community resources to adults with cognitive disabilities and behavioral issues who require licensed residential services for person with mental illness. Andrew Jackson Care is a licensed 16 bed facility and utilizes trained staff to provide each individual with the support, training, and rehabilitation needed to progress to a less restrictive living arrangement. Services are based on the individual's needs, including assessment evaluation, medication administration, crisis management, behaviors management, etc. Individuals are also given opportunities to access the community by attending a wide variety of community activities and employs a full time Activity Coordinator who directs both in-house and community activities. Andrew Jackson Care also offers daily skill building groups such as coping personal self-help, independent living, community living, social, money management, anger management, illness management and recovery, medication education, and recreational and leisure skill building.

Representative PayeeRepresentative Payee service is designed to assist individuals who are seeking knowledge and development of individual money management skills.

Vocational ServicesImagine the Possibilities' Employment Services Training has successfully placed many individuals at various work sites in the surrounding communities. The programs are designed to offer supported employment opportunities to individuals who have both the desire to work in an integrated work setting and employment abilities for this setting.

Approximately 700 clients were served in fiscal year 2018.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b	The Organization is the custodian of funds held on the behalf of residents of the licensed long-term care facilities As of June 30, 2019 these funds amounted to $469,289 These funds are reported in the statement of financial position as an asset and corresponding liability

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Imagine the Possibilities, Inc. is organized as an Iowa nonprofit corporation and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). Imagine the Possibilities, Inc. qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction and has been determined not to be a private foundation. The entity is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the entity is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to their exempt purposes. The Organization believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The Organization would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.
