Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☐1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

Moravian College's revolutionary experience is focused on creating a community of learners where students work closely with professors to develop the skills and habits of the liberal arts and integrate them into professional careers through experiential learning. By focusing on the skills of communication, analysis, teamwork and leadership, ethical reasoning, global awareness and critical thinking, Moravian College prepares students with the transferable skills needed for any career. A Moravian education is unique in its use of history, skill of reflectivity and its encouragement to be producers. The founders of Moravian College were producers as well as educators, so a Moravian education focuses on the production of new knowledge, music, literature, art and technology. Students put all these skills into practice through undergraduate research, study abroad, internships, co-ops, certificates and first professional graduate degrees.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	Moravian College and MCHI qualify as tax-exempt, nonprofit organizations under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, there is no provision for federal or state income taxes. The College accounts for uncertainties in income taxes in accordance with authoritative guidance, which prescribes a recognition threshold of more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by the appropriate taxing authority. Measurement of the tax uncertainty occurs if the recognition threshold has been met. Management determined that there were no tax uncertainties that met the recognition threshold at June 30, 2019 and 2018.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Moravian College follows state and federal regulations in administering scholarships and grants as well as institutional policy when administering college funds. The college follows federal methodology to determine financial need for awarding federal funds and need-based institutional funds. All students applying for financial aid follow an annual application process by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Files are reviewed for conflicting information and to complete required verification of application data. Moravian credits all financial aid awards, except for work study, directly to students' receivable account offsetting charges for tuition, fees and campus room and board. Changes in student enrollment status are reviewed to ensure that students remain eligible for financial aid and awards are adjusted as necessary. Any refunds from student accounts are done in compliance with state and federal regulations.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Moravian College provides housing to the President of the College. The house is adjacent to the campus, and the College requires, as a condition of employment, that the President reside there. Similarly, College owned housing adjacent to the campus is provided to the Provost of the College and is a condition of employment. Accordingly, it is not taxable income in either case. Also, the College maintains a social club membership in the name of the President. The social club is used by the President and any personal charges are reimbursed to the college monthly. The College provides limited housekeeping services for the President and the Provost relative to College functions. Accordingly, the social club membership and limited housekeeping services are not included in taxable income. The college paid for travel expenses for the President's spouse. These travel expenses were incurred while traveling for college related business.

Return Reference	Explanation

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	Moravian College and Theological Seminary ("Institution") recognize that the governance role of the Joint Board includes the annual review of the Form 990. Accordingly, the Institution requires review of the Form 990 by the Boards prior to its filing on an annual basis. The review process includes the opportunity for Board members to provide feedback and requires documented responses from management that address Board member questions and concerns. The process, as outlined below, must be completed no later than the 15th day of the 11th month following the fiscal year ending period (assuming all extensions have been timely filed). With extensions filed, for a June 30th fiscal year end, the process must be completed and the 990 must be filed no later than May 15th of the following year. A Board resolution is not required in order for the Form 990 to be filed. Process 1 Management shall be responsible for assembling, preparing and inputting all required information necessary for filling out the online Form 990. 2 Initial Draft shall be reviewed by management for accuracy. Accuracy of the Initial Draft shall be verified by management through: * Ensuring the accuracy of the content input * Ensuring that the content input is properly reflected in the Initial Draft 3 Any changes by management to the Initial Draft shall be incorporated where appropriate, and a revised draft ("Revised Draft") of the 990 will be generated. 4 Management shall ensure that changes to the Initial Draft are properly reflected in the Revised Draft and that the Revised Draft, with the accuracy of the content now verified by management, is suitable for the Board to do a proper review. 5 In a timeframe sufficiently in advance of the due date, management will make the Revised Draft available for review to all members of the Audit Committee. Management will make the 990 available to the committee members via a secure Trustee website. 6 When the committee members have had an opportunity to sufficiently review the 990, the Audit Committee shall meet with management (in person or via teleconference) to discuss content of Revised Draft and present any recommended changes. Recommended changes will be incorporated into the return as appropriate, and a final draft ("Final Draft") of the return will be completed. Any questions or recommended changes by the Audit Committee shall be documented along with management responses ("Feedback"). 7 The Audit Committee shall make the Final Draft and Feedback available for review to all members of the Boards of the College and Seminary. The Final Draft will be made available to the Board members via a secure Trustee website. Board members shall be notified of the filing date at the time the Final Draft is posted to the Trustee website. Comments from Board members must be forwarded to management no less than 7 days prior to the filing date. Recommended changes will be incorporated into the return as appropriate, and a final return ("Final Return") will
