To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in response to your letter (copy is attached) dated February 25, 2021, in which you indicated that you can't process our Form 990-EZ for the year ended June 30, 2019 until you have all the required information.

You indicated the we should have completed Schedule A, Public Charity Status and Public Support, Part III.

We thought we had submitted a complete and accurate return. On Schedule A, Public Charity Status and Public Support, our CPA completed Part II instead of Part III.

We have completed Part III and we are resubmitting a completed and accurate return.

We rely upon our tax return preparer to complete our tax return in a timely manner so that we can timely file the return.

At the last minute, our previous preparer informed us she would not be preparing our return for the year ended June 30, 2019.. We had to find another preparer which took time and the COVID-19 pandemic did not help matters.

We would appreciate it if you will accept this resubmitted return as accurate and complete. We also would appreciate it if you will accept our reasonable cause ← explanation as to why we didn't initially submit all required information with our return.

Very truly yours,

Clarence Larkins
President
