Part IV Supplemental Information

Provide the descriptions required for Part I-A, line 1, Part I-B, line 4, Part I-C, line 5, Part II-A (affiliated group list), Part II-A, lines 1 and 2 (see instructions), and Part II-B, line 1. Also, complete this part for any additional information.

Part I-A Line 1 The vast majority of these expenditures were in-kind and cash contributions to a related 527 organization, the Congressional Leadership Fund, disclosed on Schedule I and R, and other grants that AAN determined to be used for political purposes. The remaining expenditures were for AAN staff and vendor work on political matters, including strategic planning, research, polling, and data collection. During the tax year, the Network also ran grassroots lobbying communications and similar messages on issues of importance to the organization such as supporting healthcare solutions including combating the opioid epidemic and rejecting government interference in the

Medicare Part D market, supporting efforts to keep the internet free by rejecting net neutrality, and support for other center-right policies and legislation such as fiscal, budgetary, regulatory and entitlement reforms. These communications sometimes expressed views on the records of the officials the Network asked the public to contact, but the Network avoided any reference to voting or elections and did not disseminate the communications in close proximity to an election. The communications were not classified as political campaign intervention if they were in reference to an upcoming legislative action of interest to the organization, or if they were part of a series of communications on the same topic. Based on the instructions to the form, the amounts reported here include only the Network's actual spending on political activities, not the allocable part of its fundraising costs associated with raising funds that were subsequently used for political activities.

Form 990, Part I, Line 6 Although the Network successfully encouraged thousands of individuals to take action in support of its causes by contacting their representatives, speaking with others about our issues, or taking other action in favor of the Network's policy positions, such individuals were generally expressing their own views and not acting on behalf of the Network. Accordingly, we have not counted the citizens we mobilized as Network volunteers. The volunteers reported here are our board members, who serve without compensation.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4 Program services reported in this section do not include expenses for political campaign intervention or other activities of the Network that do not directly further its purposes according to current IRS guidance. In contrast, some such expenses are reported as "program service" expenditures rather than management or fundraising expenditures in Part IX, given the slightly broader definition of program service there.

Form 990, Part IV, Line 5 The Network did not receive any member dues or voluntary payments from members this year. However, the Network's practice is to inform all donors, whether or not they are members, that their contributions are not tax deductible as charitable contributions or as business expenses.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 1a The Network has a four-person executive committee. It is empowered to review and advise on decisions of management in between full board meetings, consistent with the direction set by the full board. It has no power to amend the Network's governing documents, dissolve or merge the Network, approve the sale or exchange of any assets of the corporation, or elect or remove directors or officers.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 8b The audit and compensation committees keep contemporaneous minutes, but the executive committee generally does not. The executive committee serves primarily to advise management, and thus does not typically exercise board powers to pass resolutions with binding effect.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11a The Form 990 is reviewed by the President of the organization and Director of Operations, in consultation with accounting and legal professionals as appropriate. Thereafter, a final copy is circulated to all of the members of the organization's governing body prior to filing. The final copy includes the full Form 990 submitted to the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c. The organization asks board members, officers, employees, and volunteers annually to disclose interests that may give rise to potential conflicts of interest under the Conflicts of Interest Policy. It does so in conjunction with asking for information about arrangements that may need to be disclosed on the Form 990.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15. The board (or a committee thereof) has periodically reviewed compensation at comparable organizations (using Forms 990 and survey data) to determine appropriate general compensation levels for the President/Executive Director. The board or a board committee also reviews any annual bonus, but does not regather comparables as part of every bonus decision. For other employees, the President/Executive Director or the Director of Operations reviews compensation for similar work at peer institutions to determine compensation levels. The President/Executive Director reviews and approves all staff compensation.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 17. The organization is an action organization and is not a charity under the generally accepted legal definition of that term. The organization therefore does not register under state laws pertaining to charitable solicitation or similar laws except where it determines that state law is meant to apply to other organizations besides common law charities.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19. The certificate of incorporation and conflict of interest policy are provided upon request. Financial statements are provided to certain states for charitable solicitation registration purposes.

Form 990, Part IX. The organization incurred costs shared with other organizations, the American Action Forum and the Congressional Leadership Fund, often subject to reimbursement for their allocable share of the costs. In such circumstances the organization has reported only its net amount paid as expenses on Part IX.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 4 The organization amended its bylaws to remove legacy provisions regarding the initial board of directors as well as the position of Chief Executive Officer, and to vest the authority previously vested in the CEO in the President of the organization, who is also the Executive Director

Part V Line 2 - The organization made grants to, and shared some staff, facilities, equipment, and other assets and outside service providers with, the Congressional Leadership Fund ("CLF"), a related organization. During the tax year the shared staff were concurrent common law employees of the Network and CLF but paid directly by the Network, time spent working for each organization was tracked. Some of the shared costs were simply covered by AAN and others were subject to reimbursement by CLF. AAN and CLF had separate relationships with other common vendors, but amounts spent on those vendors by AAN have not been reported here unless AAN paid amounts subject to reimbursement by CLF or AAN paid more than AAN owed to a vendor for that vendor's services to AAN in order to cover the amount owed by CLF.
