Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 - The ASCPA provides financial support for the American College of Surgeons (ACS) for research, education, and patient safety programs.

The Professional Association transfers income to ACS and the use of the funds is monitored by ACS, which has the same leadership as the Professional Association. The ASCPA also supports local-level advocacy efforts by ACS Chapters in their respective states by offering grants between $5,000 and $15,000 through their Chapter Lobby Grant Program. The chapters conduct state capital lobby days in which fellows, residents, and members of the ACS participate in state lobby days to advocate for legislation that will improve patient safety and quality, and to educate lawmakers about their chapter's legislative priorities. This year, the Michigan Chapter was the recipient of the College's enhanced lobby day grant and used the money to engage the state legislature on securing funding for the state's trauma system.

990, Part VI, Line 1a - The members of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors shall consist of the persons serving from time to time as members of the Executive Committee of the Board of Regents of the American College of Surgeons. The Chair of the Board of Directors shall be the Chair of this Committee. During the intervals between meetings of the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee shall exercise the powers of the Board of Directors in the management and directions of the business and the conduct of the affairs of the corporation, except that it shall not have power to amend the Bylaws or regulate fees, dues, or assessments. 990, Part VI, Line 11 - The 990 forms are completed by the ACS accounting department and reviewed by outside tax professionals.

Once outside tax professionals review and recommend changes, the accounting department finalizes the 990 forms.

The Committee accounts for the receipt of disclosure statements and follow up on any issues. This information is then reported to the ACS Finance Committee of the Board of Regents. If the ACS Finance Committee feels there are conflicts that are questionable in nature, they are reported to the ACS Board of Regents Chair and Treasurer for action. The Board of Regents Executive Committee shall take action on any presumed or potential violation of this policy by a member of leadership to ensure that a conflict of interest does not arise or does not continue. In addition to any legal penalties, such action may include, but shall not be limited to, oral admonishment, written reprimand, resignation, and restitution. A member of leadership who disagrees with the findings or recommendations of the Finance Committee or the action of the Board of Regents Executive Committee may appeal the decision to the Board of Regents.
