Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	The organization operates a "micro grant" program, issuing grants of up to $1,000 to individuals, not for profits, and businesses for building renovations, community beautification projects, historical restoration, and community programs. The program is documented in pamphlets and on Facebook. There is a formal application process, committee review, and grading procedure. Fraternity members visit sites to verify that grants have been utilized as promised in the grantees' applications. We do so in cooperation with an organization called Troy Rehabilitation and Improvement Program (TRIP), to whom we grant funds, they distribute these funds per our direction to the individual grantees.
