Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

ABC was founded with a recognition that Latinos were quickly becoming the largest ethnic group in the Los Angeles metropolitan area and because of a need to ensure the state's and city's investment in the future of the Latino community. For nearly 20 years, ABC has partnered with diverse groups of advocates, research organizations, local elected officials, community based organizations, parents and students to foster public awareness, policy and research that supports the advancement of Latinos towards a more prosperous future. With access to equitable and quality public education at the center of our work for 2017 and 2018, ABC aims to deepen the awareness between educational gaps and health and economic disparities and their interdependence in achieving healthy, quality lives for Latinos. Since its inception, ABC has worked closely with the Los Angeles Unified School District LAUSD, community leaders and parents to increase equity and create college and career pathways that break the cycle of intergenerational poverty. Through coalition campaigns, ABC has successfully led the adoption of resolutions that identify meaningful goals and systemic solutions to forever close educational gaps and increase college preparation in LAUSD's K-12 public schools, specifically for low-income students, English learners and foster youth.

2018 Accomplishment Highlights:	ABC advocates for policies, programs, and practices that work towards creating greater opportunities for Latinos in the Los Angeles region to thrive. Increasing the civic engagement of all communities and the access to a high quality public education for all children are the driving force behind advocacy efforts. Significant accomplishments in 2018 include the prioritizing of policies that address increased equity in public education. ABC's leadership on the Consortium for English Learner Success helped to build on the synergy between policy and practice both locally in Los Angeles and statewide on the state of English Learners in the educational system. ABC also sees civic engagement as a foundational building block to increasing opportunities to achieve economic equity for all. In 2018, ABC co-hosted a community-centered Gubernatorial Forum focused on children's issues with regards to education, child poverty and youth justice. ABC helped lead efforts on a resolution to "Close the Gap," which was adopted by the LA Unified School Board of Education that sought to improve key outcomes for high needs youth across the educational pipeline to ensure that all students are "on track" for success beginning in their elementary years.
