Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The organization has two primary program services. The first being our Grant Program. Consistent with the organizations mission, each year grants are awarded through a grant application process from the organizations endowment funds in accordance with the organizations spending policy and the wishes of the donors.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The organizations second program is our Scholarship Program. Each year scholarships are awarded from Field of Interest endowed and nonendowed funds to various students meeting the qualifying criteria set forth in the fund documents. The scholarship committee, along with donor selection committees, review the applications and recommend the acceptable recipients. Finally the board of trustees approves the scholarships and the scholarships are awarded.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Like many small legacy cities in Ohio, Marion has suffered for many years from a negative self-image, which has resulted in brain-drain, loss of businesses, and a lower quality of life for residents. This, in turn, reduces tax revenue, lowers educational outcomes, and diminishes revenues for charities and non-profits, including Marion Community Foundation. MarionMade is a program that promotes a positive self-image about our communitys people, places, products, and programs. This program is intended to reverse the trends described above in order to rebound and grow the communitys pride, thereby increasing benefits to the communitys citizens and charities.
