| 1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year. |     |    |
| 2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |     |    |

| 1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided? |     |    |
| 2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization (s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).                                                                                                                             |     |    |
| 3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.                                                                                                 |     |    |

Answer (a) and (b) below.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Yes | No |
| a Did substantially all of the organization's activities during the tax year directly further the exempt purposes of the supported organization(s) to which the organization was responsive? If "Yes," then in Part VI identify those supported organizations and explain how these activities directly furthered their exempt purposes, how the organization was responsive to those supported organizations, and how the organization determined that these activities constituted substantially all of its activities. |     |    |
| b Did the activities described in (a) constitute activities that, but for the organization's involvement, one or more of the organization's supported organization(s) would have been engaged in? If "Yes," explain in Part VI the reasons for the organization's position that its supported organization(s) would have engaged in these activities but for the organization's involvement.                                                                                                                              |     |    |

| Part I, Line 2:  | Form 990, Schedule I, Part I, Line 2: Departments within Saddleback Memorial Medical Center (SMMC) request grants from Saddleback Memorial Foundation (SMF) by submitting request forms to the President of SMF. The grant request form is completed by the individuals authorized to initiate the request and must include all supportive documentation. The President will present the requests to SMF's Grants Committee for review and evaluation. All requests have the approval and endorsement of the department's Executive Director, the Chief Operating Officer (COO), and the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of SMMC. The approval and endorsement of grant requests are the responsibility of the requestor. The President of SMF is responsible for monitoring, receiving, processing, and reporting all grant requests. The Grants Committee meets twice a year in the months of April and October. All requests for capital and program service expenditures are submitted by the Administration of SMMC for review no later than April 1st prior to the fiscal year in which monies are to be expended. SMF's President meets with the COO and CFO of SMMC in order to determine which capital items (property, plant, building, equipment, or projects) and program services are most needed by SMMC. SMF's Grants Committee considers each grant separately and determines which of those requests provides assistance most needed by SMMC. The Grants Committee may seek the assistance of SMMC's CEO, COO, and/or CFO in prioritizing those needs. The total grant requests approved during any fiscal year shall not be a total amount that would jeopardize the financial and operational viability of SMF in order to further its mission and purpose. SMMC provides feedback/monitoring of the use of the grants to SMF, which is then reported back to the SMF Board of Directors. A portion of the grants given to SMMC are used for the scholarship program. SMMC offers scholarships to all eligible staff (clinical and non-clinical) of the affiliated medical center on an annual basis. Recipients are chosen by the Scholarship Committee annually from a pool of applicants. There are various requirements and criteria that must be met in order to be awarded a scholarship from the organization. The purpose of the scholarship program is to assist in the education of current staff to enhance the medical and administrative function of the affiliated medical center's treatment and services provided to the community. The process involves potential recipients receiving endorsements from senior staff in addition to personal narratives from each, and an explanation of financial need. The packets, and all required information and documentation is distributed to the Scholarship Committee for scoring and ranking, and ultimate selection of awardees. The requirements include the following: 1) Must be an eligible employee, 2) Must attend, or be attending, an accredited institution, 3) The area of study must be related to career goals at the affiliated medical center (clinical or non-clinical), and 4) The educational performance and adherence to aforementioned criteria of the recipient is monitored throughout the award year. Schedule I, Part II The total consists of the following amounts: Capital equipment &amp; projects: Space optimization project - $6,669,321 Infusion Center project - $765,971 Physician Resource Center project - $291,314 Rooftop garden project - $67,957 Nurse Call System - $33,243 NICU Biliblankets - $11,092 Program services: Hospice program - $50,000 MemorialCare Senior Plus program - $50,000 Cancer Nurse Navigator program - $22,500 Volunteer services program - $2,800 ICU and PACU RN training - $2,400 Radiant Wraps - $1,670 Palliative Care training - $1,000 Pastoral Care program - $200 NICU Bereavment outfits and blankets - $100 |

| Form 990,Part VI,Section B,line 12c | The General Counsel's office annually surveys each Director and officer and requires affirmation that the conflict of interest policy has been read and understood. The results of the survey are reported to the Governance Committee of the Saddleback Memorial Medical Center, the parent organization, which is responsible for governance, oversight, and nominations. Conflicts are evaluated for being occasional or disabling in nature. The General Counsel makes the initial evaluation and advises the Governance Committee in its deliberations. If an occasional conflict is identified, the General Counsel advises the subject Director or officer and Governance Committee in a "Rebuttable Presumption" type process. Should a disabling conflict be identified, the Director or officer resigns or is removed upon the recommendation of the General Counsel, Governance Committee, and Board of Directors. In addition, an annual notice is sent by email (to each employee with access to email) regarding the acceptance of gifts and corresponding policies. |

| Form 990,Part VI,Section B,line 15 | The CEO of the organization is not compensated by the filing organization, but rather by the tax-exempt parent, Memorial Health Services (MHS). Saddleback Memorial Foundation (SMF) reimburses MHS for these expenses. The following is the process that the parent organization undertakes to approve the CEO's compensation. Within the organization, the compensation of Vice President's and above is reviewed by an external consultant with final review and approval by the Compensation Committee of the MHS Board of Directors and their outside counsel. All market data is obtained from third party survey sources. Market data reviews are completed consistently on an annual basis in order to determine appropriate compensation. For the current reporting period, the compensation determination process was completed in calendar year 2018. The process of determining the compensation is documented in the minutes of the MHS Board. |
