PART X, LINE 2:	The Internal Revenue Service has ruled that the School qualifies under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is, therefore, not subject to tax under present federal income tax laws. The School has not been classified as a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) and does qualify for deductible contributions as provided in Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi). The School follows the accounting guidance for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. The Schools income tax filings are subject to audit by various taxing authorities. In evaluating the Schools activities, management believe its position of tax-exempt status is appropriate based on current facts and circumstances, and there have been no uncertain positions taken related to recording income taxes. Management has also assessed that there are no activities unrelated to the purpose of the School and therefore no unrelated business income tax is to be recognized. It is the policy of the School to include in general and administrative expenses penalties and interest assessed by income taxing authorities.
