Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The accounting standard for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, JCC may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of JCC and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBTI). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses deferred recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for the reporting periods presented in these financial statements. JCC files Form 990 annual information returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the State of Illinois.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	For general program scholarships, initial requests are processed through an online financial aid software. Those results are then reviewed by members of Senior Leadership who develop the parameters and process of awarding and distributing fee assistance. For EZRA related assistance, grantee assistance is tracked through an electronic database. A committee of case managers meets to review financial assistance requests. Decisions are reviewed by the director of EZRA's Multi-Service Center, who develops the work plan and procedures for executing the financial assistance. The information is frequently substantiated by grantor reporting requirements.
