990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 3	The College invests in various foreign corporations and partnerships, both directly and through U S partnerships. However, the College's share of foreign corporation and partnership investments does not exceed 10% and thus Form 5471 or Form 8865 is not required. While these investments may be considered Passive Foreign Investment Companies, the College is not required to file Form 8621 as the investment income is not debt-financed unrelated business income. The College files Form 926 for transfers for foreign corporations during the year, both directly and through U S partnerships when cash transfers exceed $100,000 or when other types of assets are transferred.
