Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Clinical - The Savila Collaborative provides preventative primary mental healthcare direct clinical services including outpatient mental health assessment, evaluation, counseling, psychotherapy, and drug and alcohol addiction recovery treatment available to individuals, couples and families residing in Bernalillo county and the surrounding community, regardless of their ability to pay During FY 18-19, The Savila Collaborative expanded our clinical staff and programming All clinical staff are bilingual English/Spanish speaking to reduce cultural and linguistic barriers to treatment We expanded our efforts to make our clinical services more accessible by integrating services within several South Valley and International District public schools to offer free culturally and linguistically appropriate school-based counseling and peer support services to students and their family member Over the course of the year Centro Savilas staff provided behavioral healthcare to hundreds of families, Implemented mindfulness and stress management skills groups for patients experiencing anxiety and depression, Established a Spanish-speaking Grief Support Group, Provided outpatient drug and alcohol counseling to community and court-mandated patients, Collaborated with partner organization Casa de Salud to provide opiate/opioid holistic outpatient treatment services, Partnered with the Youth Engagement Program to promote cultural activities including a hip hop program, and farm-based work to local youth, Provided integrated case management and clinical services to youth involved in the criminal justice system and their families, Provided integrated clinical and case management services to victims of crime at our South Valley and International District sites at the West Side Emergency Housing Center and, Expanded services in our therapeutic garden Since 2017, Centro Savila has experienced significant expansion of staff, services and office sites During the 2018-2019 fiscal year Centro Savila worked to integrate the different funding and attached services so that they are located at each site Unrestricted operational funding from donations, grants and philanthropic contributions allowed us to offer clinical services regardless of clients ability to pay at each site The following were specific grants Centro Savila used to support our clinical programming Clinical Services VOCA The Savila Collaborative received a grant to assist victims of violent crimes through VOCA (Victims of Crime Act) VOCA established a Crime Victims Fund in 1984 from fines and penalties paid by convicted federal offenders The Crime Victims Fund is awarded to local victim assistant programs throughout the United States to help compensate victims in every state for crime-related losses The crime-related losses might include medical and dental care, funeral and burial expenses, loss of earning, mental health counseling and others up to a maximum of twenty thousand dollars The Savila Collaborative began providing therapy and case management services to qualifying individuals since October 1st, 2018 To qualify for services under the VOCA grant, clients need to have been victims of a serious crime and not have access to health insurance VOCA funding is meant to increase victim safety by providing trauma informed, culturally competent emotional support and safety services as well as information and referral and personal advocacy accompaniment through case management/systems navigation services Clinical support services include crisis intervention, individual therapy and group therapy, as well as trauma-informed mental health evaluations in support of the immigration cases of crime victims Case management/navigation services, include providing information about the criminal justice process, referral to victim services, supports and resources, as well as assistance in applying for benefits and services, interpreter services, intervention with other agencies and institutions on behalf of victims of crime As of October 2019, we have served 123 individual clients Each client has been provided with an individual assessment, evaluation, and therapy services according to their needs All clients have been informed of CVRC services and assessed to determine the need for case management/navigation services as well as wraparound services Clinical Services CTICTI is two-year program funded by the ACEs grant provided to The Savila Collaborative by Bernalillo County Since inception, CTI has provided intensive therapeutic and case management services to a diverse array of youth and their families within the greater Albuquerque area of New Mexico The Savila Collaboratives Critical Time Intervention (CTI) Program is a 9-month youth enrichment program designed to support systems involved youth ages 12-24 and their families reach their full potential Our CTI team is a passionate group of bi-lingual Spanish/English speaking professionals who are committed to empowering youth, their families, and our community Our goal is to enhance a youths social, emotional, and physical well-being Our culturally mindful intensive therapeutic and case management interventions are designed to assist youth and their families in building a healthier alliance with themselves and within their environments through the development of five dynamic self-advocacy characteristics advanced self-awareness, mindful communication, deepened knowledge of rights, inclusive leadership skills, valued holistic health Our services include Therapeutic Mental Health Services (individual, couples, family, and group), Case Management Services, Clinical Support Groups focused on Community Engagement and Self-Advocacy, Caregiver Advocacy Council, Youth Leadership Council CTI clients served include (127) new primary clients, (527) continuing primary clients, (68) new secondary clients, (146) continuing secondary clients, (19) successfully discharged, (84) disengaged The disposition of the 19 successful discharged charged clients included positive outcomes These clients demonstrated sustained employment and healthier communication with their communities (work, school, and family) Of the (84) clients that disengaged from services their disposition remained the same due to their premature discharge Most of them lacked motivation for treatment, ended up on the run from the law, or were detained for some time

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Case Management The Svila Collaborative provides systems navigation and case management services to clients that have difficulty accessing services to meet their basic needs. Case Management services are available to assist child and adult clients with accessing services and community support systems such as supported living, educational services, vocational services, welfare, food stamps and medical services. Case Managers assist clients through advocacy, educational activities, and coordination of services. The Savila Collaboratives culturally and linguistically sensitive case management services are provided by certified Community Health Workers (CHWs) and social work interns who coordinate and provide services and resources necessary to promote recovery, rehabilitation and resiliency to program participants and their family. Case managers identify and addresses the barriers that impede the development of skills necessary for independent functioning. Their work consists of a variety of interventions, with at a minimum 60 percent face-to-face and in-vivo that can include accompaniment and advocacy with clients in home, school and work environments as they navigate complicated systems. Case Managers, Pathways Navigators, student interns and CTI Specialists conduct needs assessments, screen for Adverse Childhood Experiences, and assist The Savila Collaborative's clients in the development and coordination of a treatment plan that may include a recovery or resiliency management plan, a crisis management plan. When requested, our team may provide advocacy and accompaniment to insure access to basic needs including behavioral health care, support and intervention in crisis situations and planning that incorporates the use of natural supports and alternatives to the utilization of emergency departments and inpatient services. During FY 18-19, the Svila Collaborative participated in the Pathways to a Healthy Bernalillo County program providing services to some of the most economically, psychologically and physically vulnerable residents of Bernalillo County. With the addition of the Hopkins Center in the International District, Centro Svila added a Pathways Navigator to our team who now serves the International District. In addition to our Pathways Navigators, The Savila Collaborative supervises Masters in Social Work (MSW) interns from New Mexico Highlands University and New Mexico State University. The Svila Collaborative provided work experience and training to student volunteers and interns from UNM, NMHU, and NMSU clinical programs on case management services and the social determinants of health. Our organization expanded our Community Health Worker (CHW)/Promotora efforts to integrate research, education and services to reduce behavioral health disparities with Hispanic and Latino populations and collaborated with researchers at the University of New Mexico's Transdisciplinary Research, Equity and Engagement Center for Advancing Behavioral Health and other community partners in the Immigrant Wellbeing Project. The Svila Collaborative continued to integrate CHW training into our health insurance education, outreach and enrollment efforts to facilitate uninsured and newly insured in finding a healthcare home and other social supports. We continued to act as the coordinator of the Community Partnership for Health Equity (CPHE) program, a national network of public health groups, that focus on upstream healthcare prevention, community engagement, and integration of healthcare and social services.

Case Management Peer Support Outreach and Enrollment - The Savila Collaborative has a team of bilingual health insurance outreach, education and enrollment specialists who facilitate uninsured and newly insured in finding a healthcare home and other social supports. During FY 18-19, The Svila Collaborative worked to expand health insurance coverage in New Mexico by adding new staff to our Outreach and Enrollment team to become Presumptive Eligibility Determiners (PEDs) for the state Medicaid program and Navigators for the New Mexico Health Insurance Exchange/BeWell program. Centro Svila's team of 4 bilingual determiners and navigators scheduled appointments and provided education to over 2400 people and successfully enrolled over 600 people in Medicaid and in private health insurance. The Outreach and Enrollment team also participated in outreach efforts to inform the public about health insurance options and eligibility. The Outreach and Enrollment team performed over 200 hours on outreach and education efforts. The Outreach and Enrollment team attended over 20 events within the Bernalillo area, focusing our efforts to target the South Valley and other low-income communities. We encountered thousands of individuals by distributing marketing materials within the community to places such as school events, local businesses and community centers. Our culturally diverse and bilingual team was able to reach many Latino/Hispanic and Spanish speaking New Mexicans who still remain the largest uninsured population in NM.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Strengthening Families Program - Nationally recognized for its evidence-based practices, the Strengthening Families Program (SFP) involves the entire family in a 14-session program that equips them with tools and strategies to increase positive parenting, and parental supervision and involvement, while reducing substance use, parent and child depression, as well as family conflict. This parenting program offers classes for both parents and children where they acquire tools to help them improve their children's social skills, and the family's cohesion, communication and resilience. The program mission is to educate parents about the importance of positive parental behavior and parents being the role model, guide and monitor of their child as they develop their values and choose their behaviors and path in life. The Svila Collaborative reached the following established goals: assessing and improving the evaluation tool through the UNM Lab to reflect more accurately the program's efficacy and to be more culturally relevant, gain the collaboration of another agency, namely NACA, to co-sponsor the training of new staff and expand services geographically, offer mental health first aid training to facilitators and families through NACA, to train youth facilitators to increase youth participation through the training of one individual. The Svila Collaborative partially met its goals of increasing the number of families served and the addition of more schools. In the 2018 Fall semester 10 families completed the program and in the 2019 Spring semester 24 families completed the program.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d Other Program Services Description	OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 4 Strengthening Families Program - Nationally recognized for its evidence-based practices, the Strengthening Families Program (SFP) involves the entire family in a 14-session program that equips them with tools and strategies to increase positive parenting, and parental supervision and involvement, while reducing substance use, parent and child depression, as well as family conflict. This parenting program offers classes for both parents and children where they acquire tools to help them improve their childrens social skills, and the familys cohesion, communication and resilience. The program mission is to educate parents about the importance of positive parental behavior and parents being the role model, guide and monitor of their child as they develop their values and choose their behaviors and path in life. The Svila Collaborative reached the following established goals: assessing and improving the evaluation tool through the UNM Lab to reflect more accurately the programs efficacy and to be more culturally relevant, gain the collaboration of another agency, namely NACA, to co-sponsor the training of new staff and expand services geographically, offer mental health first aid training to facilitators and families through NACA, to train youth facilitators to increase youth participation through the training of one individual. The Svila Collaborative partially met its goals of increasing the number of families served and the addition of more schools. In the 2018 Fall semester 10 families completed the program and in the 2019 Spring semester 24 families completed the program.
