Part V Supplemental Information

Provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information. See instructions

To receive grant funds, foreign organizations must complete a grant application. The board of Integrity Discipleship Partners reviews the application in detail to ensure the requesting organization meets the mission and purpose criteria. If the application is approved and funds are provided, the receiving organization must provide the following reports on a semi-annual basis:

a. Grant Project Report - a narrative describing organization activities, goals achieved since the last report, objectives for the next reporting period, and challenges faced in meeting stated goals.

b. Grant Fund Transaction Report - a spreadsheet listing the funds transferred to the receiving organization with a section for the organization to detail how the funds were used.

These reports are reviewed by the treasurer and findings reported at the next board meeting. In addition to the above reports, at least one board member travels to the Czech Republic every other year or so and meets with receiving organization leaders there to observe organization activities, particularly with the largest recipient, Integrity Life located in Brno (CZ).
