Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Student scholarship applications are submitted by parents for tuition assistance at private schools in the state of Arizona. The parent supplies their income level and number of dependents on the application. The student enrollment is then verified with the administration of the school by our organization. An application is only valid for one school year, and the parent must re-apply each year. The Yuma's Education Scholarship Fund board of directors reviews the applications and awards scholarships based on financial need. Upon board approval, the scholarships are issued to the qualified private school in Arizona. The school is informed by letter that they may not receive an amount per student (from all tuition organizations) in excess of the total tuition amount due for each school year. In the event an excess amount is received by the school, then they are instructed to return the excess funds to the school tuition organization in a timely manner. The application is available in a PDF format on our website.

Part VI Section A Line 8a and Section B Line 11a:

Form 990 and all supporting schedules were completed by the Executive Director and the provided to the President of the organization for review. All financial information used to complete the form 990 is reviewed each month by the board members at the monthly meeting.

Part VI Section B Line 14:

Documents related to scholarship applicants, banking statements, and donations for the organization will be retained for a minimum of seven years, and then shredded. All financial statements, and state and federal tax related documents are being retained since inception of the organization.

Part VI Section B Line 15a:

The board established a compensaton plan for the Executive Director during the monthly meeting held in August 2008. The compensation plan states that the Executive Director shall be paid a percentage of the total donations received during the month. This is to be paid on a monthly basis. The Executive Director is an independent contractor and therefore issued a Form 1099 at the end of the calendar year.

Part VI Section C Line 19:

The organization keeps all governing documents, policies, and financial statements at the office located at 550 E 32nd Street, Suite 3, Yuma, AZ 85365. Request by the public to see any of these documents would be taken by the Executive Director to the board for advisement, and then made available in paper form.

Part XII Line 2c:

Legislation requires that we have our financial statemnts audited by an independent Certified Public Accountant each year. The process is overseen by the Executive Director and President of our organization. The auditors statements are provided to the rest of the board members for review upon completion of the audit.
