Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

The Corporation is exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except to the extent it has unrelated business taxable income.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require that the Corporation recognize in the Corporation's financial statements the financial effects of a tax position, if that position is more likely than not of being sustained upon examination, including resolution of any appeals or litigation processes, based upon the technical merits of the tax position. The new requirements also provide guidance on measurement, classification, interest and penalties, and disclosure.

Tax positions taken related to the Corporation's tax exempt status, unrelated business activities taxable income and deductibility of expenses and other miscellaneous tax positions have been reviewed, and management is of the opinion that material positions taken would more likely than not be sustained by examination. Accordingly, the Corporation has not recorded an income tax liability for uncertain tax benefits. For the year ended June 30, 2019, there were no interest or penalties related to income taxes recorded or included in the financial statements. As of June 30, 2019, the Corporation's tax years 2017 and 2018 remain subject to examination.
