Explanation: The Organization made a political contribution to a political party in the amount of $600 during the year. Organization's manager was not aware that the Organization is not allowed to make political contributions. The Organization's manager has been informed that political contributions are not allowed and no political contributions will be made in the future. The contribution of cash was the only activity that the Organization was engaged in and there was no other activity such as printing and distributing literature or activity at political events. Pursuant to the IRS Regs. 53.4955-1(d), the political contribution was not willful and not flagrant and correction action was taken. The recovery was not possible due to the insignificant amount and safe guards have been put in place to prevent future political expenditures. It is requested that the tax under IRS Regs. 53.4955(b) be abated.
