Other	Three Ministries continued events and on important days throughout the year. This year we organized a witness outside of a meeting of bishops in Rome, calling attention to the lack of voting rights for women, as well as a prayerful witness during the Papal visit to Ireland. We also support our membership in taking action annually on "Vocations Sunday" through public witness, letter writing, and social media to call attention to the inequalities experienced by women in the Roman Catholic Church. The Ministry of Walking with Women Called supports young women called to leadership roles within the Church but are prohibited from serving because of their gender. This year surveyed young women pursuing higher degrees to evaluate the barriers women face in their faith and careers, and how to better support their talents. We continue to build and coordinate a national network of support and offer a scholarship to women discerning their vocation to priesthood at higher education institutions. The Ministry of Prophetic Obedience provides ongoing support at ordinations for women called to serve as priests and bishops. Chalices were sent to several newly ordained women and we maintain a database of Feminist Ministers to provide members with networking opportunities with ministers in their area.
