PROJECT NORTHSTAR DC Northstar Tutoring: is a one-on-one tutoring and mentoring program for homeless and low-income children in the Washington, D.C. area. All of our tutors/mentors are volunteers and the program is free for participants. Northstar expanded to two new locations in the last year. Columbia Heights Northstar continued our decades long program in Columbia Heights providing tutoring to low income students in the surrounding neighborhoods. Approximately 80 students are enrolled in the Columbia Heights program, with the majority coming twice weekly. Students work on homework and math and reading materials during the 90 minute sessions. Approximately 150 full-time tutor/mentor volunteers and substitutes participated in the program throughout the year. Northstar recently partnered with the Mt. Pleasant Library and is now holding Wednesday tutoring sessions in the library. Garrison Elementary After a success pilot program last spring, Northstar opened a full program in October, 2019 to serve some of the lowest performing students at Garrison Elementary. The program focused on about 25 students who attended twice weekly, hour long sessions. Students worked on a combination of homework and supplemental materials. Northstar worked with teachers to create supplemental materials based on math and reading goals identified by teachers for each student. Approximately 60 tutors participated throughout the year, some as full-time tutor/mentor volunteers and some as part time substitutes. Hyattsville Teen Center Northstar formed a partnership with the City of Hyattsville to replicate the DC program for 6-12th grade students living and/or attending school in Hyattsville. Approximately 30 students attend twice weekly, 90 minute sessions. As with our other programs, students focus mainly on homework but are also provided with additional academic materials for occasions when they don't have homework. Approximately 50 tutors participated throughout the year, some as full-time tutor/mentor volunteers and some as part time substitutes. Northstar will continue to provide tutoring services to these students throughout the summer to help prepare them for the coming year. Funding: Northstar brought in approximately $15,000 in personal donations and $65,000 in contract work for Hyattsville and Garrison tutoring services. In kind donations included free space for our weekly tutoring programs, snacks for the students, and a number of office and school supplies for tutoring sessions.

REGULAR OR COMMUNITY FOSTER CARE (RFC)The Community Foster Care Program allows siblings of Treatment Foster Care children to be served as Regular Foster Care children in treatment foster homes to keep sibling groups together mitigating traumatic loss as well as supporting family permanency and wellbeing. NORTHSTAR BALTIMORE Northstar Baltimore is a tutoring mentoring program with the goal of improved academic growth and success and social-emotional development for at-risk children in our community. The catalyst for this change is a positive caring relationship with an unrelated adult serving as a tutor/mentor. NB uses the successful model of DC-based Northstar, which has provided weekly tutoring and regular mentoring activities to thousands of DC students for over 25 years. NB became fully operational in Baltimore with weekly tutoring sessions in three locations (the elementary/middle schools in the Southeast Baltimore neighborhoods of Highlandtown and Greektown and also at MPP offices). In school year 2017-2018, about 30 students were matched each week with their own NB volunteer tutors with a focus on individualized math and language assignments from the students' teachers. Positive results -- more confidence in school, higher test scores, better attitudes toward school -- were enthusiastically reported by the students, by their teachers, and by the volunteers. NB launched school year 2018-2019 with two evening sessions at the MPP offices in Highlandtown and now services about 30 students each week from a number of area schools. Each month NB also holds a mentoring activity for the student-volunteer pairs and their families to further develop the relationships and community of support. NB's VISTA volunteer through Strong City Baltimore has been incredibly valuable in allowing NB to increase outreach to volunteers, community groups, and financial supporters and ensure sustainability of the program.
