Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
PART X, LINE 2	Hillel is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and from District of Columbia franchise tax under applicable tax regulations. Hillel is not a private foundation pursuant to section 509(a)(1) of the IRC. Income which is not related to exempt purposes, less applicable deductions, is subject to federal and state corporate income taxes. Hillel did not have any material unrelated to business income for the year ended June 30, 2019. In accordance with authoritative guidance issued by the FASB, Hillel recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained. To the extent that the final tax outcome of any such matters is different than any amounts recorded, such differences would impact income tax expense in the period in which such determination is made. Management has evaluated Hillel's tax positions and has concluded that Hillel has taken no material uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements to comply with the provisions of this guidance. Interest and penalties, if any, related to accrued liabilities for potential tax assessments are included in income tax expense. For the year ended June 30, 2019, Hillel did not pay interest and penalties. The tax years ended June 30, 2016, 2017, and 2018, remain open to examination by the taxing jurisdictions to which Hillel is subject, and they have not been extended beyond the applicable statute of limitations. No examinations are currently in process.
