Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	First class or charter travel. To facilitate its 24 hour security coverage for Dr. Robertson, Regent University provides charter air service for his business and personal flights. The University reports taxable income for Dr. Robertson's personal flights on his form 1099. It uses the Standard Industry Fair Level (SIFL) method as allowed under IRS rules for valuing personal flights. Travel for Companions. Regent University does not provide companion air travel for non-business purposes. Housing allowance. Regent University provides a ministerial housing allowance for qualified faculty and staff. This is reviewed and approved by the board.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	Regent University regularly reviews the compensation of its officers and vice presidents to determine whether compensation is reasonable compared to similar positions of responsibility at other institutions. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees (in the absence of the Compensation Committee, the Audit Committee will assume this role) will periodically conduct an independent review of compensation which includes the President along with all officers and vice presidents. This process includes securing comparable compensation data from an independent source, reviewing the data to ensure that the compensation is reasonable and contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision making process takes place. Furthermore, when Regent University hires a new officer or vice president, it will ensure that all compensation is reasonable compared to similar positions of responsibility at other institutions.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	The conflict of interest policy is regularly reviewed and consulted. The University requires its officers, directors, trustees and key employees to complete a conflict of interest questionnaire and statement on a regular basis. If any conflict is noted, the officer, director or trustee will recuse themselves from voting during board meetings.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	Regent University regularly reviews the compensation of its officers and vice presidents to determine whether compensation is reasonable compared to similar positions of responsibility at other institutions. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees (in the absence of the Compensation Committee, the Audit Committee will assume this role) will periodically conduct an independent review of compensation which includes the President, along with all officers and vice presidents. This process includes securing comparable compensation data from an independent source, reviewing the data to ensure that the compensation is reasonable and contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision making process. Furthermore, when Regent University hires a new officer or vice president, it will ensure that all compensation is reasonable compared to similar positions of responsibility at other institutions.
