Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - There is a conflict of interest policy in the Foundation's bylaws that is reviewed with all board members. We are careful when bringing in new members to avoid asking people to join who would have potential conflicts of interest; and those with any potential conflicts are required to excuse themselves from discussion of and voting on issues. Foundation funds are expended based on programs, service and building projects approved by the Kanawha County Public Library Board of Directors, further reducing the potential for instances of conflict of interest on the part of Foundation board members to arise.
