Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part II, Line 9	The Organization records land at cost if purchased or at fair market value at date of acquisition if all or part of the land was received as a donation. Fair value is generally determined by independent appraisal. Land and land interests consist of the following: Conservation Properties - real property with significant conservation value. These lands are managed in an effort to protect their conservation value until they can be transferred to other organizations or governmental units who manage the land in a similar fashion in perpetuity. Upon the land's sale or gift, the book value of the land is removed as an asset from the statement of financial position and reported as a program expense. The related proceeds, if any, are reported as revenue in the statement of activities. Conservation Easements are comprised of listed rights and/or restrictions over the owned property that are conveyed by a property owner to the Organization in an effort to protect the property as a significant natural area. These intangible assets may be sold or transferred to others if the assignee agrees to carry out, in perpetuity, the conservation purposes intended by the original grantor. The net value of the easements is not included as an asset on the statement of financial position since the value can not be reasonably estimated.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization qualifies as a 501(c)(3) charitable organization as defined by the Internal Revenue Code and, accordingly, is exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(a). Additionally, since the Organization is publicly supported, contributions made to the Organization qualify for the maximum charitable contributions deduction under the Internal Revenue Code. The Organization is also exempt from North Carolina state income tax. Currently, the Organization is not under an income tax audit. Management has analyzed tax positions taken by the 501(c)(3) Organization and concluded that, as of June 30, 2019, there were no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken. Accordingly, no tax, interest, or penalties related to uncertain tax positions have been accrued in the accompanying financial statements.
