Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Legal Assistance for the Poor: In 2018-19, approved grant awards included childrens legal services, community economic development, two-year Equal Justice Works Fellowships for general civil legal aid and disaster recovery, the Civil Legal Aid Training Initiative, and student loan forgiveness to 200+ attorneys at legal aid organizations. Other 2018-19 projects included 1) Providing online legal research services to legal assistance grantees at a significantly decreased rate, with the Foundation facilitating centralized billing for a statewide contract with international legal research firm, Westlaw, and providing subsidized funding to offset grantee costs; and 2) Continued partial subsidies to grantees for an online case management system (Legal Server) funded and implemented by the Foundation in 2008 to improve the administration of the day-to-day casework and related activities of program lawyers and paralegals. This case management system provides grantees the data and communication needed to manage cases, track outcomes, and report to funding sources.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Improvements in the Administration of Justice: In 2018-19, approved grant awards included continued funding for Florida Justice Technology Center for strategic use of technology in Floridas Legal Services delivery system. The program also funded the Florida Innocence Project which works to exonerate Floridians for crimes they did not commit, and Florida Health Justice Project, which promotes health care rights for Floridians, especially marginalized and poor populations.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Pro Bono Partnerships The Florida Bar Foundations Pro Bono department is the hub and connector between law firms, law schools, the judiciary, legal aid and other stakeholders to increase awareness of, and create pro bono opportunities. Pro bono roughly translates to for the good of the public and generally encompasses lawyers agreeing to represent at no charge persons who cannot otherwise afford to hire an attorney. During the year, the Foundation also provided support and funding to the Florida Pro Bono Coordinators Association to expand pro bono efforts and opportunities and create further partnerships. The Foundation expanded FloridaProBonoMatters.org, an online referral system that enables lawyers to search for and take pro bono cases across multiple legal aid organizations. The Foundation also piloted the first of its kind Florida Pro Bono Law School Challenge, matching law students from all 12 Florida law schools with alumni lawyers from each school to work on client cases hosted by Foundation grantees. The Foundation also continued to support the Pro Bono Transformation and Innovation grant program. The purpose of the Pro Bono Transformation and Innovation Grants program is to develop and enhance grantees pro bono programs that serve low-income Floridians to improve the reach, quality, and effectiveness of the services clients receive. This is done either through a restructuring of the grantees current pro bono program to be more streamlined, efficient, and integrated within the organization or through projects which are replicable, innovative, and based on industry best practices. The Foundation funded five transformation grants and six innovation grants during the past year.
