In addition, the Benevolence Center offers vouchers through the City of Leesburg for utility assistance when funds are available. 27,458 needy individuals received some form of assistance throughout the year. Additionally, The Fresh Start Job Program began operation in 2008 as a volunteer program. It is designed to provide help and assistance to individuals who are unemployed and seeking re-employment. Job referrals, career counseling, resume development and computerized job searches are available either by personal appointments or on-line by computer access. The need for help, assistance and direction is increasing daily and will continue for some time as individuals in the community continue to struggle with unemployment. Last year we assisted 121 people finding jobs in Lake County.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	Each ministry has a policy or procedure in place that regulates and monitors assistance that is provided to those the Organization helps and assists. The Organization evaluates each applicant's financial and personal situation to determine the type and amount of assistance it deems necessary. Files are maintained for each individual who requests assistance from the Organization. A vast majority of the assistance is provided through payments directly to vendors or through vouchers. Cash assistance is provided in rare instances and is not tracked separately by the Organization. Distributions are generally made on a one-time basis, therefore, no ongoing monitoring is deemed necessary.
