Form 990 (2018)

Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☒1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

CareLink connects older people and their families with resources to meet the opportunities and challenges of aging. We accomplish this by providing in-home services to help homebound older people live in their own homes as long as possible, helping active older people stay fit, healthy and involved, and helping family caregivers navigate the maze of available services and care for aging family members. Our vision is a community of people who celebrate living and are aging well. The six-county area served by CareLink includes Faulkner, Lonoke, Monroe, Prairie, Pulaski, and Saline. CareLink offers many services and assists over 13,774 people annually.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

CareLink helps family caregivers navigate the maze of available services and care for their aging family members. Family caregivers receive counseling services focusing on issues that affect their personal stress levels and well-being in addition to being informed about potential services for the aging family member they are assisting. They also receive instruction or assistance with completing applications for aging services. Approximately 723 family caregivers received services during the year ended June 30, 2019.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

CareLink provides in-home services to help homebound older people live in their own homes as long as possible. Clients receive assistance with the day-to-day tasks associated with housekeeping and personal grooming. Clients may also receive nutritious meals-on-wheels, the companionship of another older volunteer, and the reassurance of personal safety provided by a handy alert monitoring system. Approximately 3,650 homebound older people received services during the year ended June 30, 2019.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

CareLink helps active older people stay fit, healthy and involved through fitness and wellness programs, senior centers and volunteer opportunities. At senior centers, people can enjoy a nutritious lunch, make new friends, renew old acquaintances, enjoy group activities and relieve the stress of being alone. A group transportation option provides shopping trips and other outings. Fitness and wellness programs are provided in senior centers and other locations. CareLink also offers a variety of volunteer opportunities. In fact, CareLink and senior center programs in our service area receive over $2 million a year in volunteer effort from dedicated volunteers. Approximately 4,110 active older people received services during the year ended June 30, 2019.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

CareLink helps older people and their families determine what services are available. Free information and guidance to help families match their needs with programs, services, and resources are available upon request. CareLink helps find the best way to pay for these services and either delivers them directly or makes referrals. Information and Assistance serves as a clearinghouse of useful resources on virtually every aging-related topic. Legal assistance and nursing home ombudsman programs provide additional support. Approximately 8,200 different individuals received outreach and advocacy services during the year ended June 30, 2019.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	CareLink is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Code. Accounting standards require CareLink to evaluate tax positions and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if CareLink has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). CareLink has analyzed the tax positions taken and has concluded that as of June 30, 2019, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require the recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. CareLink may be subject to audit by the IRS, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.
