Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The organization fulfills its mission through a variety of social functions. The functions include a semi-formal dance/party; informal parties with members, family, and friends; an annual banquet; campus activities; membership recruitment; cookouts; member initiation; and fundraising events. The number of social events is dependent upon the organization's available funds and the college's school calendar. The organization also promotes scholarship amongst its members and has an event each semester to recognize its top students. The organization also builds relationships with other college chapters through various events.
