What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?

The Science & Engineering Business Association (SEBA) creates a strong community of science and engineering students pursuing excellence in business. We aim to inspire an entrepreneurial spirit among our members by hosting events that allow them to interact with, and learn from, members of the business community. From these interactions, SEBA members will be able to generate relationships with our business partners, facilitating the exchange of ideas, and the creation of new business ventures. Through SEBA, our members build networks and develop the skills that will ultimately provide them with the foundation necessary to become future business leaders. We strive to be, for students, the 'place where science meets business.'

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.
