Support the school and the children with tools and activities that the school district can not provide. The PTO provides communication between parents and teachers to establish a greater relationship for the welfare of the children. Assist teachers by reading, tutoring, mentoring, and offering programs such as field trips, author days, and cultural arts. The PTO may also purchase learning tools such as books, computer programs, puzzles, gym equipment, music supplies, and science equipment. All income is used to benefit the children.
