Over 425 were provided free tax preparation services through

Part III 4

PWC's VITA program. Homecare Workforce Development Training: More than 4,000 homecare workers in the homecare industry received education, training and tools in leadership development, occupational health and safety and developing skills in assisting clients on activities of daily living such as proper handling of clients with Alzheimer, dementia and stroke. The thrust is to educate and empower homecare workers.

Wage Justice Advocacy: PWC provides outreach educating workers of thier rights and provides legal support in pursing back wages. Over 120 individuals were assisted, 106 won cases in decisions served and 86 collected back wages that total over $1,000,000.

Labor Trafficking Victims: Over 18,000 women, men and children are trafficked into the USA every year and Los Angeles is one of the primary destinations. PWC supports individual trafficking survivors and their families with culturally appropriate case management that addresses needs around housing, food, clothing, safety, counseling, medical care, legal services and community integration. PWC has served 195 families in the past years. There is so much that PWC has to do. PWC's outreach programs have expanded to various other concerns such as voter education and empowerment which is a civic engagement providing linguistically appropriate and relevant phone banking to educate and strengthen the voting power of individuals. PWC was able to make over 45,000 phone calls to members of the Filipino community.
