Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Andrew's Gift created a Literacy Project that focuses on students with autism improvement in the core competencies of reading, writing, and spelling with the understanding that these foundational skills support growth in all areas of the core curriculum (math, science, social studies). We work collaboratively with school staff in each of our sites to ensure that instruction in literacy is present, robust, and designed to meet the individual needs of each student. Through our efforts we are able to assist these schools in identifying curriculum for a diverse range of learners, to support effective instructional practices in a variety of settings, and to introduce 21st Century learning tools into these specialized instructional settings. We seek to improve student motivation for learning, to ease their ability to fully participate in learning environments, and to demonstrate growth across the components of skilled reading and additional literacy skills. We plan to continue funding these grant requests in the future.

Explanation: The FY 6/30/19 Form 990 for Andrew's Gift is prepared by a volunteer accountant and was due 11/15/19. However, due to an oversight by the volunteer accountant, the extension was prepared diligently but improperly filed late. Instead of quickly filing an incomplete return and later submitting an amended return, the 6/30/19 return was submitted as if the extension was properly filed. The failure to file closer sooner was due to COVID-19 not willful neglect. To prevent this from happening in the future, the organization plans to file the extension the following month after the books are closed.
