Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

ONE Organization, UNITED Effort, GREAT Results Greater Gallatin United Way (GGUW) is local, well-governed by volunteers, and has been an essential and vibrant supporter of the community. Greater Gallatin United Way fights for the health, education, and financial stability of every person in the greater Gallatin community. The Organization takes a collective approach to community problem solving and serves people in Park, Madison, Meagher and Gallatin County, Montana. The Agency was incorporated with the State of Montana on December 19, 1978. The governing board consists of an elected board chair, and elected members of the board of directors. The Organization is supported primarily through contributions from an annual campaign, as well as, grant funds. GGUW is a community leader in collective impact-driven work. To achieve our mission, we identify priority community issues around Health, Education and Income utilize a strategic plan that directs GGUW to listen to the community, to provide leadership when warranted secure resources through an annual fundraising campaign, grant writing, utilizing existing community assets and developing innovative partnerships convene individuals, businesses, nonprofits and government to work collectively targeting root causes provide essential funding through our Community Investment/Impact process to vetted partner programs, ensuring donors that their dollars are wisely invested to make the most impact mobilize community members, businesses and their workforce to get involved by giving, advocating and/or volunteering As a centralized philanthropy, we believe that real long-term change is best generated by a united effort, working collectively through a common agenda. When nonprofits are equipped to effectively collaborate, duplication is reduced and each partners contribution multiplies to deliver greater results for the community. Greater Gallatin United Way works on tough issues because: - Poverty is not a distant issue. It exists right here - Mental illness is not a distant issue. It exists right here - Illiteracy is not a distant issue. It exists right here. No one organization alone in isolation can solve complex community problems. The only way we can create real, lasting change is by working together through Collective Impact. Collective Impact requires that everyone work together in partnership businesses, cities, government, schools, churches, foundations, and non-profit organizations to tackle our most pressing challenges and develop lasting solutions. Greater Gallatin United Way focuses on 4 Community Impact Areas: I Basic Needs - Ensuring basic needs are met II Children and Youth Success Ensuring children and youth consistently get a strong start and have a solid foundation for success in school, work, and life III Senior Stability Ensuring older adults feel valued as community members and their physical and mental well-being needs are met IV Behavioral Health and Well-Being Cultivating individual resiliency by creating a collective shift in the communitys understanding of mental health and behavioral health as a component of whole person health Our strategies to ensure Basic Needs are met: - End homelessness and advance affordable housing options (U.S. Government defines affordable housing as housing that consumes 30% or less of a household's income) - Eliminate food insecurity - Access to affordable health care - Promote 2-1-1 / Suicide and Crisis Hotline + resource coordination and access to resources Our strategies for Children and Youth Success: - Early literacy, children entering kindergarten ready learn - Grade level reading by 3rd grade (a key measure of a child's academic success, and a strong predictor of high school graduation) - Access to quality affordable early child care, 0-5 years (Child care is considered affordable if it is less than 10% of total income) - Access to quality affordable out-of-school-time care / summer programming, 5+ years Our strategies for Senior Stability: - Enhance senior mental and physical well-being - Help seniors remain independent as long as possible - Promote end-of-life education and support for seniors and care givers Our strategies around Mental Health and Well-Being: - Community outreach, education and awareness about mental health, mental well-being and mental illness - Combat human trafficking and abuse and support for survivors - Quality professional development for care providers - Access to mental health resources and services We believe that no problem is so big that we cant solve it together, but it takes all of us: fundraisers, hand-raisers, change-makers, partners, and each of our donors to create lasting change through advocacy, fundraising, and volunteerism. GGUW Program Services & Impact Our work addresses the quality of life for the whole community, from babies to seniors. 1 Community Investment/Impact We mobilize the caring power of the community and invest funds in over 60 local tax-exempt programs and initiatives that are effective, accountable and demonstrate positive results for the people served. GGUW funding is aimed at combating poverty and supporting education and health initiatives. Supporting seniors to reduce isolation and loneliness and supporting basic needs to lift up all those who are homeless, hungry or struggling financially are prioritized areas for GGUW funding. 2 kidsLINK Afterschool provided a safe, healthy, enriching environment for more than 1,600 youth on a daily basis at 33 sites in four counties. 3 Early Childhood Community Council supports youth ages 0-8 and their families by bringing together diverse stakeholders working together to support strong, healthy families and to engage Montanas early childhood partners to improve systems and access to mental health services for young children and families in our rural communities. 4 Dolly Parton Imagination Library provides free books to more than 800 children to promote childhood early literacy skills-development and a love reading and learning. Children 0-4 years old may enroll and receive 1 book delivered to their mailbox each month, for children starting at birth they build a personal library of 60 books by the time they enter Kindergarten. GGUW promotes recruitment of the program for all children in Gallatin County and raises funds for the costs of shipping the books to each child with a goal of reaching a minimum of 2,000 children annually by 2023. 5 The Resilience Project is a behavioral health and mental wellbeing initiative of Greater Gallatin United Way which aims to build a healthier and more resilient community through a shift to a new collective mindset about behavioral health and mental well-being and how to improve whole-person health. Efforts include delivering resilience workshops to broad and diverse audiences to normalize mental health as a component of whole-person health. 6 Behavioral Health Community Coalition Support and Leadership - GGUW is actively engaged with three community coalitions - LiveWell49, Gallatin County Mental Health Local Advisory Committee, and Elevating Behavioral Health - and provides leadership support for collective efforts. These efforts include advocating for behavioral health at local, state, and federal levels, building broad awareness and utilization of Help Center 2-1-1, and deploying a multi-media campaign called Man Therapy to build awareness of behavioral health. 7 Volunteer Connections / Volunteermt.org - This GGUW initiative is to build volunteer engagement by providing a central resource for non-profit organizations to share quality volunteer opportunities with community members. GGUW operates with transparency and accountability throughout all its programming and operations and invests donations wisely and efficiently. To learn more, visit www.greatergallatinunitedway.org

Section A. All Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Are all of the organization's supported organizations listed by name in the organization's governing documents? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organizations are designated. If designated by class or purpose, describe the designation. If historic and continuing relationship, explain.	1
2 Did the organization have any supported organization that does not have an IRS determination of status under section 509(a)(1) or (2)? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how the organization determined that the supported organization was described in section 509(a)(1) or (2).	2
3a Did the organization have a supported organization described in section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6)? If "Yes," answer (b) and (c) below.	3a
b Did the organization confirm that each supported organization qualified under section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6) and satisfied the public support tests under section 509(a)(2)? If "Yes," describe in Part VI when and how the organization made the determination.	3b
c Did the organization ensure that all support to such organizations was used exclusively for section 170(c)(2)(B) purposes? If "Yes," explain in Part VI what controls the organization put in place to ensure such use.	3c
4a Was any supported organization not organized in the United States ("foreign supported organization")? If "Yes" and if you checked 12a or 12b in Part I, answer (b) and (c) below.	4a
b Did the organization have ultimate control and discretion in deciding whether to make grants to the foreign supported organization? If "Yes," describe in Part VI how the organization had such control and discretion despite being controlled or supervised by or in connection with its supported organizations.	4b
c Did the organization support any foreign supported organization that does not have an IRS determination under sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a)(1) or (2)? If "Yes," explain in Part VI what controls the organization used to ensure that all support to the foreign supported organization was used exclusively for section 170(c)(2)(B) purposes.	4c
5a Did the organization add, substitute, or remove any supported organizations during the tax year? If "Yes," answer (b) and (c) below (if applicable). Also, provide detail in Part VI, including (i) the names and EIN numbers of the supported organizations added, substituted, or removed, (ii) the reasons for each such action, (iii) the authority under the organization's organizing document authorizing such action, and (iv) how the action was accomplished (such as by amendment to the organizing document).	5a
b Type I or Type II only. Was any added or substituted supported organization part of a class already designated in the organization's organizing document?	5b
c Substitutions only. Was the substitution the result of an event beyond the organization's control?	5c
6 Did the organization provide support (whether in the form of grants or the provision of services or facilities) to anyone other than (i) its supported organizations, (ii) individuals that are part of the charitable class benefited by one or more of its supported organizations, or (iii) other supporting organizations that also support or benefit one or more of the filing organization's supported organizations? If "Yes," provide detail in Part VI.	6
7 Did the organization provide a grant, loan, compensation, or other similar payment to a substantial contributor (defined in section 4958(c)(3)(C)), a family member of a substantial contributor, or a 35% controlled entity with regard to a substantial contributor? If "Yes," complete Part I of Schedule L (Form 990 or 990-EZ).	7

Return Reference	Explanation
Additional Supplemental Information	The Organization provides funding support for initiatives and programs providing human services in the Greater Gallatin region of Montana. Community volunteers are included in the grant processes to ensure full transparency. At times, the board of directors may provide funds for an emerging community need as outlined in the organizations community impact agenda. Funded partners who receive grants must meet eligibility criteria that include demonstrating strong governance and board oversight, strong financial reporting practices, and services identified as high need in the community and indicating positive results for the target population. Coalitions, task forces, or initiatives that receive funds or act as fiscal agents for funds, meet regularly throughout the year with Organization representatives. Efficacy and use of funds are monitored through financial reports, program reports, and site visits.
