Part 3

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose:

Asali's mission is to improve childhood quality of life worldwide through education, arts, and health initiatives. Asali collaborates with partner organizations to develop programs focused on improving the lives of children around the world.

Asali partners with Simba's Footprints, an organization in Tanzania that runs after-school programming and events at its community center in Moshi. Through mentorship, financial support, and program development, Asali supports three major programs at Simba's Footprints. All projects are a collaboration between Asali and Simba's.

Part 3, Item 28

English Initiative

One of Asali's major points of focus is English language development. English is critical for Tanzanian students' education, as after Standard 7 (ages 12-14), the entire education system switches from Swahili to English. Access to education beyond Standard 7 is dependent upon a passing score on the National Exam, which contains a difficult English language section. Many students are unable to complete their education because they are unable to pass the exam. Due to these challenges for the students, Asali's flagship program is focused on increasing access to high-quality English education. Our current English initiative is two-fold: providing an English Club during school hours and teacher trainings after school.

This past year Asali reached a total of 275 children through our English program after expanding to two more local schools - Mji Mpya Primary School and Miembeni Primary School. Both of these schools are among the five primary schools in Simba's community. After collaborative meetings between school headmasters, Simba's representatives, and Asali board members, English programming will be expanded into three grade levels at each establishment.

We look forward to strengthening our relationship with both schools as we continue to collaborate. Our pilot English program at Langoni Primary School is going strong, and with the help of some friends of Asali, we were able to completely renovate our classroom. We are now running two classes at each school: one with Standard 3 students (comparable to third grade) and one with Standards 4 and 5 (comparable to fourth and fifth grade). Our students are excited and engaged during class and have reported that they greatly enjoy the interactive teaching techniques.

Another important piece of the English Initiative is teacher training for educators at the Langoni School. Training the teachers to use more modern methods enriches their teaching practices allow Asali to reach many more students through different teachers and schools than would be possible as an isolated organization.

Finally, as part of our education initiative, Asali established a library at Simba's Community Center in FY18, which remains the only Library in the Majengo community.

This year we did a major renovation of our library at Simba's Footprints. Thanks to a grant we received from New Leaf Fund we were able to completely renovate the space including painting the walls, adding a mural, and building new furniture

Thanks to these renovations, we were able to implement new uses for the space. Often students are unable to purchase study books on their own and are unable to study effectively at home with a lack of electricity or space. In response to this, Asali purchased copies of all secondary study materials and has open library hours. In addition, the new and improved library space will be used as a kindergarten English classroom for Simbas' youngest students.

Asali's investment in the English Initiative for this fiscal year totaled $4090. We have also received significant in kind donations totalling $2,492 worth of books and workbooks to fill the library and keep the content novel for students.

Part 3. Item 29

Music Program

In response to an outpouring of requests from Simba's Footprints students and community members, Asali built its music studio. Asali filled the refurbished room with donated guitars, keyboards, a public address (P.A.) system, bass guitar, drums and microphones. Asali also hired two local musicians to teach three days a week.

Our music program has taken big strides over the past year. Asali became one of Berklee College of Music's Community Partners, providing us access to instrument donations that will help enrich our programs at Simbas

Our little studio's instrument stores have tripled in size and are being managed by two fantastic new music teachers who both provide either weekly or biweekly lessons for our students. The excitement from our students about learning a new instrument and working together to create music is palpable.

This year, Asali has provided $1104 worth of in kind donations and invested $1546 on music programming.

Part 3. Item 30

Health Program

This year, Asali launched a pilot healthcare initiative. In collaboration with Simba's administrators, 30 of Simba's most medically vulnerable children were enrolled in healthcare and given an annual checkup. Based on the check up, two children received glasses, four were treated for ringworm, and one was referred to a local hospital for treatment of severe gastrointestinal disease. Using this information, Simba's social worker is able to track other ongoing issues and assist with prevention and further treatment. The insurance covers all medical expenses, prescriptions and surgeries at two partnering hospitals in the Kilimanjaro region.

In addition, we provided the local community hospital an eye chart and scope to use when performing vision check ups on both Simba's kids and children and adults from the larger community. The cost to date of the new healthcare initiative is $253.

This years operating budget primarily went towards the planning and execution of fundraising initiatives. As Asali is currently running on public support donations, fundraising events include an outdoor garden party to explain our work and our mission, evenings at a restaurant, and online campaigns. Other operations costs include bank wires, website fees, and federal/state tax filing fees.
